ELIAH DRINKWITZ

HEAD COACH

SIXTH SEASON AT MIZZOU

ARKANSAS TECH, 2004

Eliah Drinkwitz was named the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach on December 10, 2019, and in five seasons at the helm has compiled a 38-24 (.613) overall ledger with 2023 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Coach of the Year honors.

With over 25 years of experience, Drinkwitz has coached in 12 bowl games, including the 2011 BCS National Championship game, and mentored 55 student-athletes to all-conference honors. He's helped develop seven All-Americans and worked with 19 National Football League (NFL) draft selections while as a head coach. Additionally, he's produced seven 1,000-yard rushers, five 3,000-yard passers and five 1,000-yard receivers throughout his career as a head coach and coordinator. During four of those years (2015, 2017, 2018 and 2023) his offenses produced at least one in each category.

His 38 wins at the helm of the Tigers program, eclipsed Dan Devine's school record for wins in the first five seasons of a Mizzou head coaching tenure. In just five years, Drinkwitz ranks tied with Al Onofrio (1971-77) for sixth all-time in program history for wins and is 50-25 (.667) overall as a head coach after leading Appalachian State University to a Sun Belt Conference Championship in 2019 following a 12-1 season.

During his time in Columbia, Drinkwitz has guided the Tigers to a 27-7 (.794) overall record on Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium, giving him the best home win percentage (minimum four seasons) in the history of the program. The Tigers' 27 home wins since 2020 is tied with Ole Miss for the third-most in the SEC. The pair trail only the University of Alabama (32) and the University of Georgia (28) during that stretch.

Under Drinkwitz's guidance over the last two years, Mizzou has finished the year ranked in the top-25 and posted a combined 21-5 overall record, including an 11-5 mark in SEC play, which is tied for the third best two-year stretch in program history. The Tigers have also gone 13-1 at home, 10-1 in one-score games, 2-0 in bowl games with victories over Ohio State University (2023 Cotton) and the University of Iowa (2024 Music City) and 4-0 against Big Ten, Big 12 and ACC opponents during that time.

Drinkwitz led MU to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in 2023 (11-2) and 2024 (10-3) for the third time in program history (2007-08 and 2013-14) and for the eighth time overall. He joins College Football Hall of Famer Gary Pinkel (2001-15) as the only two Mizzou head coaches with multiple 10-win seasons. In addition, the postseason bowl victories in consecutive seasons (2023 and 2024) marked just the fourth time the Tigers have achieved the feat in program history (1978-79, 2007-08 and 2013-14).

During his time at Mizzou, he has mentored 16 players to 18 all-conference honors, including 10 to First Team All-SEC recognition, and coached 17 Tigers that went on to get drafted in the NFL. In 2021 and 2024, Mizzou had five and six players taken in the NFL Draft, respectively, including first-rounder Darius Robinson (2024) and second-round pick Nick Bolton (2021). Additionally, in the 2025 NFL Draft, Mizzou saw offensive lineman Armand Membou (No. 7) and wide receiver Luther Burden III (No. 39) both taken in the top 40, marking the eighth time in program history MU achieved the feat and the first time since 2011 when Aldon Smith (No. 7) and Blaine Gabbert (No. 10) were chosen.

Last season, Mizzou achieved its 15th perfect year at Memorial Stadium, its first undefeated record at home since 2010, while selling out all seven home games to mark the first Tigers season sellout since 1979. Drinkwitz had MU ranked in the top-20 in 14 different statistical categories at season's end, including third in turnovers lost (9), fifth in passes had intercepted (5), first down defense (211), and third down conversion percentage defense (.302), seventh in time of possession (34:39), 10th in red zone offense (.920) and 17th in total defense (317.5).

Quarterback Brady Cook wrapped up an illustrious career in 2024 that placed him second all-time in program history for career wins (26) and passing efficiency rating (143.53), No. 3 in passing yards (9,013) and 200-yard passing performances (26), No. 4 in total offense (10,222) and No. 5 in passing touchdowns. The 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Offensive and 2024 TransPerfect Music City Bowl MVP became the first quarterback in program lore to amass 9,000-plus passing yards and 1,000-plus rushing yards (1,209) in a career and joined Chase Daniel (2005-08), Brad Smith (2002-05) and Drew Lock (2015-18) as the only players in MU history with 10,000 yards of total offense.

Additionally, Burden III concluded an impressive tenure in the Black and Gold in 2024, ranking fourth in receptions (192), tied for fifth in receiving touchdowns (21) and sixth in receiving yards (2,263).

The 2023 Tigers put together an 11-2 season that saw MU move into the top-10 of all three national polls. The double-digit wins campaign was the program's first since 2014. Mizzou went 6-2 in SEC games, won both the Mayor's Cup over South Carolina and Battle Line Rivalry over Arkansas, qualified for its first New Year's Six bowl and defeated Ohio State, 14-3, in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl. Drinkwitz was named the 2023 SEC Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which is a prestigious annual honor given to the nation's top coach.

The offense, led by the trio of Cook, Burden III and running back Cody Schrader, helped Mizzou become the only unit in the country that season to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and 1,500-yard rusher. It was the first time the Tigers accomplished the feat in program history and just the second time in SEC lore. Drinkwitz mentored Burden III and Schrader to Associated Press All-America recognition. Schrader, a First Team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection, was named the winner of the Burlsworth Trophy, which honors the most outstanding player in the nation who began his career as a walk-on, after he compiled 1,627 rushing yards on 276 carries (5.89) with 14 touchdowns during his final season with the Tigers. Burden III finished his career a two-time First Team All-SEC honoree (2023 & 2024).

After the season, six Tigers heard their name called during the 2024 NFL Draft, led by first-round selection defensive end Robinson to the Arizona Cardinals as the 27th overall selection. It marked the most Tigers taken at the event since 2009 when MU had two first-round picks in Jeremy Maclin (19th overall) and Ziggy Hood (32nd overall).

In his opening three seasons in Columbia (2020-22), Drinkwitz led the Tigers to 17 wins and three consecutive bowl berths (2020 TransPerfect Music City [canceled], 2021 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces and 2022 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla). In 2022, Burden III became the first true freshman since 2008 to record two receiving touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, and a punt-return touchdown in a single season for the Tigers. The previous year, running back Tyler Badie set the school's single-season record for rushing yards (1,604), while his 14 touchdowns in 12 games were ninth on Mizzou's single season and top-10 list. Despite his first season being plagued by the COVID-19 pandemic, Drinkwitz's 5-5 regular-season record was the league's best among the SEC's four new head coaches that season (Ole Miss' Lane Kiffin [4-5], Mississippi State's Mike Leach [3-7] and Arkansas' Sam Pittman [3-7]).

Drinkwitz came to Columbia after a one-year stint as head coach at Appalachian State, where he led the 20th-ranked Mountaineers to a 12-1 record and a Sun Belt Conference Championship with an R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl appearance. App State's win total was a Sun Belt record and set the mark for the best regular season ledger in conference history (11-1). For those efforts, Drinkwitz was named the 2019 North Carolina Coach of the Year by the North State Journal and a finalist for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Award.

Drinkwitz's 2019 team made history with a pair of Power 5 road wins at bowl-eligible North Carolina, and then later at South Carolina - making them the first Sun Belt team to register two Power 5 wins in a single season. App State proved to be one of the nation's most balanced teams, thanks in large part to an efficient offense that ranked ninth nationally in scoring (39.4), coupled with a stingy defense that ranked 22nd nationally in points allowed (20.2). Mountaineers junior running back Darrynton Evans was named the 2019 Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year, after rushing for 1,323 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Prior to his time at App State, Drinkwitz spent three years (2016-18) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State University, where he helped the Wolfpack to a 25-14 overall ledger, including three bowl appearances (2016 Campaign World Independence, 2017 Hyundai Sun and 2018 TaxSlayer Gator). Following a 7-6 debut season in 2016, Drinkwitz guided the Wolfpack to consecutive nine-win seasons (2017-18) for the first time since 1991-92. Additionally, NC State made a steady rise in total offense during his tenure, going from 63rd nationally in his first season to 25th in 2017 and 16th in 2018.

While in Raleigh, Drinkwitz mentored three All-Americans in running back and all-purpose player Nyheim Hines (2017), center Garrett Bradbury (2018), and offensive guard Terrone Prescod (2018). He also had a hand in the development of 11 student-athletes, who went on to earn 17 All-ACC honors, including two-time recipients in offensive guard Tony Adams (2016-17), tight end Jaylen Samuels (2016-17), wide receiver Kelvin Harmon (2017-18), offensive tackle Tyler Jones, quarterback Ryan Finley (2017-18) and Bradbury (2017-18).

In three years as the Wolfpacks' starting quarterback, Finley finished his career with 881-of-1,365 pass attempts (.645) for 10,505 yards with 60 touchdowns and 185 rushing attempts for 309 yards (1.67) with five scores. He graduated holding the program's career record for passing yards per game (269.4) and completion percentage (.645), while ranking second in passing yards, completions, attempts, and 300-yard passing games, third in passing efficiency (140.03) and fourth in passing touchdowns. Finley would go on to be selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

For the 2014 and 2015 seasons, Drinkwitz was on staff at Boise State University, where he served most recently as the Broncos offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2015). He spent his first season (2014) in Boise as the program's tight ends coach. While there, Drinkwitz helped guide the Broncos to a 2014 Mountain West title, a two-year record of 21-6 (.778) and consecutive bowl wins (2014 Vizio Fiesta and 2015 Poinsettia). He coached seven student-athletes to All-Mountain West honors, including two-time recipient in tight end Jake Roth. He also worked closely with freshman quarterback Brett Rypien in 2015, who garnered First Team All-Mountain West accolades during his first season after finishing 273-of-429 passing (.636) for 3,353 yards with 20 touchdowns.

Before Boise, Drinkwitz was a key figure in back-to-back Sun Belt championships for Arkansas State University in 2012 and 2013. He started with the Red Wolves as the program's running backs coach (2012) before being promote to the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach (2013). Arkansas State defeated No. 25 Kent State in the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl, the school's first victory over a top-25 team since joining the FBS level, to cap a 10-win (10-3) 2012 season and then repeated as GoDaddy Bowl champions the following year to conclude with eight victories.

Drinkwitz earned his start at the collegiate level on staff at Auburn University, serving as the offensive quality control assistant (2010) and offensive graduate assistant (2011) for two seasons. The Tigers won the SEC in 2010 before going on to claim the BCS Championship with a perfect 14-0 record. Quarterback Cam Newton won the prestigious Heisman Trophy that year after completing 185-of-280 passes for 2,854 yards and 30 touchdowns while throwing only seven interceptions. Newton also accumulated 1,473 yards and an additional 20 touchdowns on 264 rush attempts and caught two passes for 42 yards and a touchdown. The following year, Drinkwitz helped the Tigers finish 8-5 with a Chick-fil-A Bowl title.

Drinkwitz also had coaching stops at Springdale High School in Springdale, Arkansas (offensive assistant [2004], offensive line coach and run game coordinator [2006] and offensive coordinator [2007-09]) and Alma Middle School in Alma, Arkansas (head coach [2005]).

A native of Alma, Arkansas, Drinkwitz graduated magna cum laude from Arkansas Tech with a bachelor's degree in education in 2004 and was the student body president before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown.

Drinkwitz is married to the former Lindsey Sivils of Alma, Arkansas, and they are the parents of four daughters Addison, Emerson, Ella, and Parker Lynn.

KIRBY MOORE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

THIRD SEASON AT MIZZOU

BOISE STATE, 2012

Kirby Moore joined the Tigers football program in January 2023, and serves as the offensive coordinator. Moore also coaches Mizzou's quarterbacks.

Moore, who has over 10 years of coaching experience, mentored quarterback Brady Cook to an illustrious career, including 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Offensive MVP and 2024 TransPerfect Music City Bowl honors. Under two years with Moore's guidance, Cook completed 445-of-690 (.645) passes for 5,852 yards with 32 touchdowns, while adding 200 rushing attempts for 542 yards (2.71) with 13 scores. Cook, a three-time team captain, went 21-5 during that stretch and 26-13 all-time as Mizzou's starter, which ranks second in wins by a Tigers quarterback.

Moore also helped in the development of running back Cody Schrader and wide receiver Luther Burden III, who both garnered Associated Press All-America recognition in 2023. Schrader, a First Team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection, was named the winner of the prestigious Burlsworth Trophy, which honors the most outstanding player in the nation who began his career as a walk-on. He compiled 1,627 rushing yards on 276 carries (5.89) with 14 touchdowns during his final season with the Tigers. Burden III finished his career a two-time First Team All-SEC honoree (2023 & 2024) after registering 192 receptions for 2,263 (11.79) yards with 21 touchdowns.

In two seasons with Moore calling the plays, the Tigers went from 58th nationally in third down conversion percentage the year prior to his arrival, to 41st and 16th, respectively, since. Additionally, the Tigers have improved in red zone offense (90th in 2022 to 3rd and 10th in 2023 and 2024), fumbles lost (111th to 3rd and 15th), turnovers lost (91st to 6th and 3rd), passes had intercepted (48th to 21st and 5th), total offense (81st to 28th and 63rd) and tackles for loss allowed (121st to 74th and 33rd).

The 2023 Mizzou offense, led by the trio of Cook, Schrader and Burden III, helped Mizzou become the only unit in the country to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver that season. It was the first time the Tigers accomplished the feat in program history and just the second time in SEC lore.

Moore came to Columbia after a one-year (2022) stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at California State University, Fresno (Fresno State), under head coach Jeff Tedford. He was named the Bulldogs' primary play caller for the 2021 New Mexico Bowl – a 31-24 win featuring 467 yards of total offense – 181 rushing and 286 passing. Before being promoted, Moore spent five seasons as the Bulldogs' wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator (2020-21) and wide receivers coach (2017-19).

In 2022, Fresno State won the Mountain West Conference championship and defeated Washington State, 29-6, in the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl. The Bulldogs ended the season on a nine-game winning streak, the first team in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history to begin the year 1-4 and finish with 10 wins. Fresno State was ranked second in the FBS in completion percentage (.710) and led the Mountain West in scoring and total offense, averaging 30.6 points per game and 402.6 yards per game, respectively.

Under Moore's guidance, five Bulldogs earned All-MWC honors, including three first-teamers in quarterback Jake Haener, wide receiver Jalen Moreno-Cropper and running back Jordan Mims. Haener finished his final season completing 252-of-350 (.720) pass attempts for 2,896 yards with 20 touchdowns. He added a 158.65 efficiency rating and averaged 290.00 passing yards per game. Fresno State narrowly missed having a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher (Mims – 1,370 yards) and 1,000-yard receiver (Moreno-Cropper – 1,086 yards) in 2022, because Haener missed four games early in the year due to injury.

Moreno-Cropper concluded his Bulldogs career a three-time All-MWC selection and graduated ranked fifth all-time in program history in receptions (220), eighth in receiving touchdowns (21) and ninth in receiving yards (2,701). Mims wrapped up his tenure in the Cardinal red and blue, ranking tied for third all-time in school lore for rushing touchdowns (37), fourth in rushing yards (3,290), and fifth in all-purpose yards (4,592).

In his two seasons (2020-21) as the passing game coordinator, Moore guided the Bulldogs to a national ranking of fifth in 2020 and ninth in 2021 in passing offense, while finishing 32nd and 17th in completion percentage. He mentored Haener during that stretch to 2,021 and 4,096 passing yards with 14 and 33 passing touchdowns, respectively.

Moore was named to 247Sports.com 30-under-30 list as one of college football's rising stars in 2017 and 2018 and was 247Sports.com's top recruiter in the Mountain West in 2019. In two of his first three seasons at Fresno, the Bulldogs wideout unit finished with one 1,000-yard and one 500-yard receiver. Keesean Johnson led the way with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons following his 1,013 receiving yards in 2017 and 1,340 yards in 2018. Johnson became the program's all-time leader in both career receptions (275) and career receiving yards (3,463) during his final season in 2018.

Prior to his time on staff at Fresno State, Moore was an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Washington (2015-16). While with the Huskies, Moore was part of the 2016 team that won the Pac-12 Championship, advanced to the College Football Playoffs, and climbed as high as No. 4 in the CFP rankings.

Moore started his career as the wide receivers coach at the College of Idaho in 2014.

Moore was a four-year letterwinner, two-year starter, at the Boise State University (2009; 2010-13), where he helped the Broncos to a 45-8 record, including a 2009 WAC Championship and a 2012 Mountain West Co-Championship. He also helped the Broncos to four consecutive bowl appearances (2009 Tostitos Fiesta, 2011 and 2012 MAACO Las Vegas and 2013 Hawai'i Bowls) as well as a final national top-20 ranking in three-of-four seasons (2009, 2011, 2012). Moore, a wide receiver, caught 115 receptions for 1,137 yards with six touchdowns in 45 career games. Following the 2013 season, he earned Academic All-District VII and Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors.

Moore graduated from Boise State with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2012 and received his master's degree from Washington intercollegiate athletic leadership in 2016. He played for his father, Tom, at Prosser High School, and played with his older brother Kellen, at Boise State for three seasons (2009-11). Tom compiled a record of 234-38 (.860) record over 23 years as a high school coach, winning 21 league titles and playing in eight state championship games. Kellen, a 2018 Boise State Hall of Fame inductee, was a four-time first-team All-American and the first Heisman Trophy finalist in school history. He led Boise State to a 50-3 record over his four-year starting career and concluded his time as a Bronco as the winningest quarterback in college football history. Kellen is the current offensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Moore is married to the former Kayla Smasne of Prosser, Wash., and they are the parents of daughter, Sutton, and sons, Cohen and Crew.

COREY BATOON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

SECOND SEASON AT MIZZOU

LONG BEACH STATE, 1991

Corey Batoon joined the Tigers football program in February 2024, and serves as the defensive coordinator.

Batoon, a 30-plus year coaching veteran, including 15-plus years as a defensive coordinator, has a resume that includes two conference championships (2003 and 2017), one divisional championship (2019), four FCS playoff showings (1997, 1999, 2001 and 2003), and 12 bowl game appearances (2011 GoDaddy.com, 2012 Compass, 2013 and 2024 Music City, 2014 Peach, 2015 Sugar, 2017 Boca Raton, 2018 and 2019 Hawai'i, 2020 Cure, 2022 New Orleans, and 2023 68 Ventures). Additionally, he's been nominated for the Broyles Award, which honors college football's top assistant coach, on three different occasions (2021, 2023 and 2024) during his coaching career.

In just one season at the helm of the Tigers' defense, Batoon has improved the unit in numerous statistical categories. Mizzou went from 33rd and 47th in third down conversion percentage defense the two previous seasons, respectively, to fifth nationally in 2024. Additionally, the Tigers improved in first down defense (40th in 2022 and 36th to 2023 to fifth in 2024), defensive touchdowns (33rd and 29th to 12th), total defense (33rd and 33rd to 17th), passing yards allowed (47th and 47th to 18th), scoring defense (55th and 25th to 20th), and fourth down conversion percentage defense (92nd and 121st to 43rd).

His defensive unit in 2024 held seven opponents to 21-or-less points, while posting 10 games with at least one turnover (fumble recovery or interception), six contests with five-plus tackles for loss and four outings with three-plus sacks. Second Team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection Johnny Walker Jr. led the group and concluded the year holding the longest sack streak nationally (seven consecutive games) to rank 17th in the country and fourth in the SEC with 0.73 sacks per game. His season sack total was the eighth-most in program history and the most by a Tiger since 2014.

Batoon came to Columbia following a three-year stint (2021-23) as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at the University of South Alabama, where he helped the Jaguars to two bowl appearances (2022 R+L Carriers New Orleans and 2023 68 Ventures).

During his three seasons in Mobile, Ala., his defensive units ranked in the top-25 in red zone defense (25th in 2021, 17th in 2022 and 23rd in 2023). His group also finished in the top-25 in two of his three seasons in first down defense (2021 and 2023), third down conversion percentage defense (2021 and 2022) as well as total defense and rushing defense (2022 and 2023).

Additionally, Batoon improved USA's numbers in scoring defense in each of his three seasons, going from No. 67 nationally during his opening season to 26th in 2023. The Jaguars limited opponents to 10-or-fewer points five times in 2023, including a 33-7 road win at Oklahoma State and a 59-10 postseason victory over Eastern Michigan in the 68 Ventures Bowl.

Batoon spent the 2020 season as the safeties coach at Liberty University under head coach Hugh Freeze, where the Flames finished with a 10-1 overall record, including wins at Virginia Tech and Syracuse before capping the season with a 37-34 overtime win against Coastal Carolina in the FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl. Under his tutelage, the Cowboys' offense averaged 32.5 points (36th nationally) and 453.9 yards (22nd nationally) per game with two ranked wins and a berth in the 2019 Texas Bowl. The balanced unit (2,985 rushing yards, 2,916 passing yards) also ranked 17th in the country with 229.6 rushing yards per game and 27th with a 64.1 completion percentage. Additionally, he mentored Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, Doak Walker Award finalist and consensus All-American Chuba Hubbard.

Gleeson spent six seasons at Princeton prior to his time in Stillwater, where he started as the running backs coach (2013-15), before adding special teams coordinator duties in 2016. In his final two seasons at Princeton, he was named the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach. Engineering one of the most explosive offenses in the Football Championship Subdivision, he helped the Tigers to an undefeated 2018 season.

Coached directly by Gleeson, Tiger quarterback John Lovett excelled as a dual-threat performer to win the 2018 Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year. Lovett, who completed 66.1 percent of his passes with 18 touchdowns, led the Ivy League by averaging 303.0 yards of total offense per game, passing for 203.7 yards per game and rushing for 99.3 yards per contest and became Princeton's first two-time first-team All-American since 1964.

In Gleeson's six years on staff, Princeton won three Ivy League championships and averaged 36.9 points per game, which marked the program's highest output over a six-year stretch in program history. Three members of the 2018 offense went on to play in the NFL: Jesper Horstad (Bears), Stephen Carlson (Browns) and John Lovett (Kansas City).

Gleeson's first job after graduation came at Delbarton School in Morristown, where he taught English and algebra and coached football, baseball and bowling. His first job in college football came as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fairleigh Dickinson from 2011-12.

While at Williams, he was the highest-rated passer in the New England Small College Athletic Conference in 2005 with a rating of 163.6. His team finished 8-0 in 2006. He received the Farley Award that year, which is presented to the member of the football team who demonstrates superior qualities of dedication, loyalty and sacrifice for the betterment of the team. Gleeson also played first base for the baseball team at Williams.

Gleeson is married to Lauren, and they have three children, Eamon, Patrick and William.

BRANDON JONES

ASSISTANT COACH (OL)

TEXAS TECH, 2006

Brandon Jones joined the Tigers football program in April 2023, and serves as an assistant coach, working primarily with the offensive line.

Jones is a 15-plus year veteran of the coaching industry – spending time on the staffs of Sonny Dykes, Dana Holgorsen, Kliff Kingsbury and Lincoln Riley. He has coached in 12 bowl games (2007 Gator, 2008 and 2023 Cotton, 2010 Military, 2012 New Orleans, 2013 St. Petersburg, 2014 Birmingham, 2015 Armed Forces, 2017 Birmingham, 2020 New Mexico, 2021 Birmingham, and 2024 Music City) and played in four more as an offensive lineman at Texas Tech from 2003-06.

In just two years, Jones has coached three Tiger offensive linemen that have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft, including first round pick Armand Membou in 2025. After being chosen seventh overall, Membou tied former Tiger Aldon Smith (2022) as the third-highest NFL Draft pick in Mizzou's history. Membou, a Second Team All-SEC honoree, helped Mizzou to 27 wins and three consecutive bowl game appearances during his career.

Jones also had a hand in the development of Javon Foster (2024) and Marcus Bryant (2025), who were selected in the fourth (114th overall) and seventh (220th overall) rounds by the Jacksonville Jaguars and New England Patriots, respectively. Foster was a three-year starter, Third Team All-America recipient and Third Team All-SEC honoree during his final season in 2023, while Bryant was a 2023 First Team All-AAC selection after playing in 55 career games, making 42 starts, between his time at Mizzou and SMU. With Bryant and Membou both being taken in the 2025 NFL draft, it marked the first time since 2016 in which two Tigers offensive linemen were selected in the same draft (Evan Boehm and Connor McGovern).

In 2024, Jones' offensive line blocked for a Tigers offense to compile 2,138 rushing and 2,926 passing yards as well as 26 rushing touchdowns. His group helped Mizzou led the SEC and rank seventh nationally in time of possession (32:54) as well as rank fourth and seventh in the conference in tackles for loss allowed (4.62) and sacks allowed (2.00) per game, respectively.

During his first year in 2023, Jones mentored a Tigers offensive line that allowed just 1.67 sacks per game, while scoring on 54-of-55 trips to the red zone on the year. The offense ranked 25th in the nation in total offense (442.9) while surpassing the 500-yard mark for total offense in five occasions. His entire line was named semi-finalists for the prestigious Joe Moore Award, which honors the most outstanding offensive line units in the nation.

Jones came to Columbia after four seasons at Houston where he was the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons (2019-20) before shifting to the run game coordinator and offensive line coach for his final two years (2021-22). In his four seasons in Houston, five of his offensive linemen received All-American Athletic Conference accolades, including left tackle Patrick Paul who became the first Cougar to be named a first-teamer multiple times, doing so in 2021-22.

In 2022, Jones' unit graded out as the AAC's top pass blocking team (88.0) per Pro Football Focus, led by Paul who ranked second nationally (91.1) among tackles and Tyler Johnson who finished 11th nationally among guards (87.6). That year Jones also tutored first-year offensive guard Cam'Ron Johnson to first-team all-conference honors.

In his second year as the Cougars' run game coordinator, his offensive line blocked for four different players to register 100-yard rushing performances including Stacy Sneed who ranked 21st nationally among running backs with 6.5 rushing yards per attempt.

In 2021, a pair of Houston offensive linemen earned All-AAC honors as Paul was recognized on the first team and Kody Russey earned second team recognition. Behind Jones' mentorship, the Cougars posted multiple all-conference offensive line selections in multiple seasons (2021-22) for the first time since being a member of Conference USA in 2011-12.

The Cougars were the only team in AAC to rank in the league's top three in both run blocking (68.5) and pass blocking (72.4). Houston's line paved the way for running back Alton McCaskill IV to lead all true freshman running backs with 16 rushing scores en route to being named AAC's Rookie of the Year.

During his first two seasons with the Cougars, Jones coached tackle Josh Jones and guard Braylon Jones to Second Team and Honorable Mention All-AAC honors, respectively. Jones would later go on to be selected in the third round, 72nd overall, in the 2020 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

Prior to his time at Houston, Jones was at his alma mater, Texas Tech, for a second coaching stint, serving as the Red Raiders' offensive line coach in 2017 and 2018. He also got his start in coaching at Texas Tech for two seasons (2007-08) as its offensive assistant, working closely with the offensive line.

Jones oversaw an offensive front unit that ranked in the top 20 nationally in consecutive seasons in total offense and passing offense. Additionally, the Red Raiders ranked 23rd in the country in 2017 for scoring offense. Sophomore Jack Anderson earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors in 2018 after earning Freshman All-America citations by both ESPN.com and USA Today in 2017. He became the first Red Raider to collect Freshman All-America accolades since 2013 and the first offensive lineman to do so since 2012.

Anderson would later be selected in the seventh round (236th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, while fellow teammate Dawson Deaton would be a seventh-round choice (246th overall) by the Cleveland Browns in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Jones arrived at Tech after helping build California's offensive line into one of the top units in the country during his final season in 2016. Jones, who served as run game coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons (2015-16), boosted a unit that ranked 82nd in sacks allowed the year prior to his arrival to 22nd nationally and second in the Pac-12 Conference at the end of the 2016 campaign.

Cal was one of the top offenses in the country in positive plays during Jones' final season as the Golden Bears ranked 13th in tackles for loss allowed. Cal was also among the top-10 teams nationally in passing offense and total offense during his two seasons. The Golden Bears also capped his first season in Berkeley, Calif., with an Armed Forces Bowl victory over Air Force for its first post-season win since 2008.

From 2010-14, Jones served as the offensive line coach at East Carolina, where he helped install a wide-open spread offense. The Pirates saw quick results in just Jones' first season, ending the year ranked eighth nationally in passing offense, 16th in scoring offense and 25th in total offense.

The Pirates rewrote the school record book during Jones' tenure, breaking the marks for scoring average (40.2), first downs (346), passing offense (328.1) and total offense (533.0). He produced seven offensive linemen who earned all-conference honors during his tenure which also featured four bowl appearances.

Jones spent one season (2009) coaching the running backs and tight ends at Sam Houston State before joining the East Carolina staff. The Sam Houston State position was his first full-time role after his two seasons (2007-08) as an offensive assistant with the Red Raiders.

Texas Tech experienced one of its most successful two-year runs in school history during his first stint on staff. The Red Raiders combined for 20 wins during that time which featured trips to the Gator Bowl (2007) and the Cotton Bowl (2008) as well as an end-of-season top-25 ranking from the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls.

Jones was a four-year letterwinner (2003-04-05-06) for Texas Tech starting 22 games mainly at center. He earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades as a junior before becoming a Rimington Award candidate, for the nation's top center during his senior season. The Red Raiders combined to win 17 games over his final two seasons, the final of which was highlighted by Tech's come-from-behind victory over Minnesota in the 2006 Insight Bowl. Tech trailed Minnesota by 31 points in the third quarter before rallying for a 44-41 overtime victory, marking the largest comeback in bowl history at the time.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Jones graduated from Texas Tech with a bachelor's degree communications in 2006.

Jones is married to the former Toya Daniels of Fort Worth, Texas, and they are the parents of daughters Jordyn and Londyn.

CURTIS LUPER

ASSISTANT COACH (RB)

SIXTH SEASON AT MIZZOU

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN, 1996

Curtis Luper joined the Tigers football program in December 2019, and serves as an assistant coach, working primarily with the running backs.

Mizzou marks the second coaching stop where Luper has worked alongside head coach Eliah Drinkwitz, with the pair previously sharing time at Auburn (2010-11).

A veteran coach with over 30 years of experience and a four-time national top 25 recruiter, Luper has coached in 17 bowl games (2002 & 2003 Las Vegas, 2004 Emerald, 2006 Independence, 2007 Insight, 2008 Holiday, 2009 Outback, 2011 Chick-fil-A, 2014 Peach, 2015 & 2017 Alamo, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Cheez-It, 2021 Armed Forces, 2022 Gasparilla, 2023 Cotton, and 2024 Music City), a BCS National Championship (2010), and an FCS Semifinal (1995). Along the way, he's developed seven NFL Draft picks, including Mizzou's Larry Rountree III and Tyler Badie, selected by the Chargers and Ravens in 2021 and 2022, respectively. He has also coached under notable head coaches such as Gary Patterson (TCU), Gene Chizik (Auburn), and Mike Gundy (Oklahoma State).

In his five seasons at Mizzou, Luper has mentored six Tigers to 700-plus rushing yards in a season, including three 1,000-yard rushers: Rountree III (1,019 in 2020), Badie (program-record 1,669 in 2021), and Cody Schrader (new record 1,654 in 2023). Mizzou has posted 20-plus rushing touchdowns in each of Luper's five seasons, highlighted by 26 rushing scores in 2024—the program's most since 2018. Rountree III, Badie, and Schrader all earned All-SEC honors, with Schrader winning the prestigious Burlsworth Trophy in 2023. Rountree III finished his career ranked second all-time at Mizzou in both rushing yards (3,720) and rushing touchdowns (40).

Before Mizzou, Luper spent seven seasons at TCU (2013-19), where he served as co-offensive coordinator, running backs coach, and recruiting coordinator. Under his leadership, TCU produced multiple 1,000-yard rushers, set offensive records, and posted three top-10 finishes in the AP Poll, including a 12-1 Big 12 Championship season in 2014. He also signed two of the highest-rated recruiting classes in TCU history and was named a National Top 25 Recruiter by Rivals.com in 2016.

Three running backs (B.J. Catalon, Aaron Green and Trevorris Johnson) topped the 100-yard mark over the course of Luper's first season working with the positional group, with Green earning Second Team All-Big 12 honors in 2014. The following season, Green became the Horned Frogs' first 1,000-yard rusher since 2010 before signing with the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted free agent. The 2016 campaign saw Kyle Hicks also top the 1,000-yard mark and receive All-Big 12 accolades. It marked the first time since 2002-03 that TCU had back-to-back seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher. Hicks also became the first Horned Frog since Basil Mitchell in 1996 to lead the team in both rushing (1,042) and receiving (47 receptions).

In 2018, Luper mentored Darius Anderson, who recorded a 93-yard touchdown run against Ohio State for the longest rushing play in TCU history and Sewo Olonilua, who closed the year with a TCU bowl record 194 yards rushing to earn Cheez-It Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player honors.

Luper joined TCU's staff after a four-stint as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Auburn under Chizik. He was on staff for the Tigers' 2010 national championship victory over Oregon in Glendale, Ariz.

During his time at Auburn, Luper consistently produced some of the nation's highly-ranked recruiting classes. His efforts helped land Heisman Trophy winner and No. 1 NFL Draft pick Cam Newton, as well as Michael Dyer, who broke Bo Jackson's freshman rushing record (1,093) in 2010. For his efforts, Luper was named by Rivals.com to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the top 10 recruiters in the SEC by ESPN.com.

He also helped the Tigers register back-to-back seasons of record-breaking offensive production and a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Auburn's rushing attack led the Southeastern Conference and ranked fifth in the nation with an average of 284.8 yards per game during the Tigers' 2010 national championship season. Auburn then set a school record with 3,987 rushing yards in 2011. The 2010 Tigers set team records for points (577) and total offense (6,989 yards) for the second consecutive year.

Luper transformed Ben Tate into a 1,300-yard rusher and a Doak Walker Award semifinalist in 2009 after he carded 1,362 rushing yards on 263 carries with 10 touchdowns. The following two seasons, Luper tutored Dyer to consecutive 1,000-yard rushing campaigns (2010 and 2011) with Freshman All-SEC recognition in 2010 and First Team All-SEC acknowledgement in 2011.

Before his time at Auburn, Luper served four years under Gundy as Oklahoma State's running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 2005-08. He was also the assistant head coach during his last two seasons with the Cowboys.

Under Luper, the OSU running attack led the Big 12 in rushing each of his last three seasons on staff, including finishing sixth nationally in 2008. Luper coached running back Dantrell Savage to First Team All-Big 12 honors in 2006 before eventually signing with the Kansas City Chiefs as an undrafted free agent in 2008. During his first season in Stillwater, Luper mentored Mike Hamilton to a freshman program rushing record and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors after finishing with 961 yards on 193 carries in 2005.

From 2002-04, Luper served as an assistant coach working with the running backs and special teams unit at New Mexico. He coached the Mountain West's career rushing leader in DonTrell Moore and had his rushing group ranked 16th nationally in 2003.

Luper started his coaching career at his alma mater Stephen F. Austin where he served as a graduate assistant working with the secondary (1995-96) and running backs and special teams coach (1997). During his time in Nacogdoches, Texas, Luper mentored Derrick Blaylock, Terrance Shaw and Jeremiah Trotter, who all went on to have successful NFL careers.

Luper also spent time on staff at McKinney High School in McKinney, Texas, for one season (1998) serving as their running backs coach, and at Texas A&M Commerce as the assistant head coach, secondary coach and special teams coordinator from 1999-2002.

A native of Sherman, Texas, Luper was a three-year letterwinner and two-year starter for Oklahoma State (1984-85-86-87) before lettering one season (1993) at Stephen F. Austin. Luper completed his eligibility at Stephen F. Austin as an All-Southland Conference running back in 1993 with a team high 1,054 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. He signed with the Houston Oilers following his senior season.

Luper graduated from Stephen F. Austin with a bachelor's degree in communications in 1996. He later added a master's degree in education from the University in 1998. Luper also added a doctoral degree in secondary and higher education from Texas A&M Commerce in 2009.

From 1988-92, he served as an air traffic controller for the United States Army. During his tenure in the Army, Luper spent eight months combined at Fort McClellan in Anniston, Ala., and Fort Rucker near Enterprise, Ala.

He is married to the former Tanya Scroggins of North Richland Hills, Texas, and they are the parents of A'rielle, Cameron, Chance, Samara, Charity, Xavier, Cheyenne, and Ayden. Four of his children have played collegiate athletics. Chance was a wide receiver on Mizzou's 2020 and 2021 teams. Cameron lettered two seasons as a wide receiver and return specialist at TCU (2013-14) and Arkansas State (2015-16) before concluding his career at Western Kentucky (2017). He also participated in track & field while at TCU and played professional football in the Canadian Football League. Charitie lettered two seasons in volleyball at UCLA (2021 and 2022) and Louisville (2023 and 2024) before turning pro and playing for the Vegas Thrill of the Pro Volleyball Federation. ASSISTANT COACH (WR) /
RECRUITING COORDINATOR
FOURTH SEASON AT MIZZOU
LOUISIANA TECH, 2007

Jacob Peeler joined the Tigers football program in January 2022, and serves as an assistant coach, working primarily with wide receivers. He is also in charge of Mizzou's recruiting efforts.

He has over 15 years of coaching experience, including three as an offensive coordinator at Texas State (2020-21) and Ole Miss (2019). In three years of managing Mizzou's recruiting presence, Peeler has taken the Tigers from securing the No. 32 signing class in 2023 to back-to-back top 25 finishes at No. 21 (2024) and No. 14 (2025). He also helped sign three of the Tigers' all-time top-rated prospects including in-state, five-star recruit Luther Burden III and Williams Nwaneri.

Peeler continued to have a hand in the development of Burden III after he arrived in Columbia, coaching him to two-time First Team All-SEC honors (2023 and 2024) and Second Team All-America recognition in 2023. The Biletnikoff Award semifinalist concluded his three-year career registering 192 receptions for 2,263 yards (11.79) with 21 touchdowns in 38 career games (33 starts). He finished his career riding a 34-game consecutive reception streak, which ranked as the second longest in program history, and ranked fourth in career receptions, tied for fifth in receiving touchdowns and sixth in receiving yards. He would later go on to be a second-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears (39th pick overall) in the 2025 NFL Draft.

Peeler also mentored Theo Wease Jr. after the Allen, Texas, native transferred from Oklahoma prior to the 2023 season. After graduation, Wease Jr. signed as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins.

Over a two-year span from 2023-24, Peeler coached the duo of Burden III and Wease Jr. to become the first Mizzou pair to achieve 600-plus receiving yards in back-to-back seasons since Emanuel Hall and Johnathon Johnson did so in 2017 (817 & 724) and 2018 (828 & 737).

Peeler arrived in Columbia after a two-year stint (2020-21) at Texas State as its offensive coordinator. During his time in San Marcos, Texas, the Bobcats produced eight offensive All-Sun Belt Conference honorees. Additionally, offensive lineman Dalton Cooper was named a Second Team Freshman All-America selection by The Athletic following the 2020 season.

Under Peeler guidance, the Bobcat offense increased its rushing output in 2020 by nearly 65 percent from the previous season and averaged 369.7 total yards and 27.7 points per game. It was the most yards gained for the Bobcats since 2015 and the most points scored since 2014.

Marcell Barbee led the Bobcats in back-to-back seasons with 40 catches in 2020 and 2021. The Pueblo, Colo., native logged 584 and 520 receiving yards as well as 10 and five touchdowns, respectively, during that stretch. His 10 touchdowns ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in 2020. The wide receivers position accounted for seven of the top nine reception leaders in 2020, and also included Second Team All-America return specialist Jeremiah Haydel, who caught 40 passes for 408 yards and four scores.

Peeler joined the Texas State staff after serving three years at Ole Miss under head coach Matt Luke. He was the wide receivers coach in 2017 and 2018 before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach his final season in 2019. During his tenure, Rebel receivers caught at least 39 passes five times and tallied more than 600 yards receiving six times.

While in Oxford, Peeler helped produce two of the NFL's best 2019 rookie wide receivers in Tennessee Titan A.J. Brown and Seattle Seahawk D.K. Metcalf. Brown joined the Titans after he was a two-time All-American who rewrote the receiving records at Ole Miss. He ended his three-year career as the school's all-time leader with 2,984 receiving yards and 12 100-yard receiving performances in his career. Brown earned Second-Team All-America, First-Team All-SEC honors, and was a Conerly Trophy winner and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist after setting the school's single-season receiving marks both seasons. He set single-season records with 85 catches and breaking his own mark with 1,320 receiving yards in 2018.

In Peeler's first season at Ole Miss, Brown set the school's previous record with 1,252 receiving yards and tied another single-season mark with 11 receiving touchdowns. He also is the only wide receiver in Ole Miss history with two 1,000-yard seasons.

In addition to Brown, DaMarkus Lodge had 65 catches for 877 yards and four TDs in 2018. Lodge (698) and Metcalf (646) combined for 1,344 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2017. Elijah Moore had 67 catches for 850 yards and six touchdowns in 2019.

From 2013-16, Peeler served on staff at California as the Golden Bears' offensive graduate assistant (2013-14) before being promoted to the inside wide receivers coach (2015-16). Peeler helped turn Cal's offense into one of the nation's best, as the Bears ranked in the top 10 nationally in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense for three-straight seasons.

He helped sign a strong 2016 class highlighted by wide receiver Demetris Robertson, considered the nation's top-ranked receiver by Rivals.com, and 247Sports.com. In his freshman campaign, Robertson hauled in 50 catches for 767 yards and seven touchdowns en route to receiving Freshman All-America accolades from several national outlets.

In 2016, Peeler assisted with a Cal offense that finished fourth nationally in passing (358.8), 10th in total offense (513.2), and 22nd in scoring (37.1). He mentored freshman Melquise Stovall (42 catches, 415 yards, three touchdowns) to become an immediate contributor.

The inside receivers played a significant role in the Golden Bears' 8-5 record in 2015 and a victory in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl over Air Force, Cal's first bowl win since 2008. Cal's offense set numerous single-season records in passing yardage (4,892), passing yards per game (376.3), passing touchdowns (44), total offense (6,879), total yards per game (529.2), total touchdowns (63), scoring offense (37.9), first downs (341) and first downs passing (201).

Cal set or equaled nine single-season school or modern-era records on the offensive side of the ball in 2014 while Peeler was a graduate assistant working with the inside receivers. Cal ranked in the NCAA's top 25 in seven different offensive categories in 2014, including passing offense (6th, 346.0), scoring offense (10th, 38.3), and total offense (13th, 495.2).

During his time at Cal, Peeler he coined his positional group the 'Nasty Wide Outs", and developed the likes of NFL players Richard Rodgers and Stephen Anderson.

Prior to Cal, Peeler spent four years at his alma mater, Louisiana Tech, from 2009-12. He was a graduate assistant working with inside receivers in 2012 after serving the three previous seasons in quality control roles on the offense.

Before returning to Louisiana Tech, he coached one year at Itawamba Community College (Fulton, Miss.) in 2008, serving as its tight ends and assistant offensive line coach.

Peeler played every offensive snap for two seasons at Holmes Community College in 2002 and 2003, earning All-America, First-Team All-NJCAA Region 23, and First-Team All-State honors. He later transferred to Louisiana Tech, where he was a two-year letterwinner (2005-06) and one-year starter (2006) along the offensive line.

A native of Kosciusko, Miss., Peeler graduated from Louisiana Tech with a bachelor's degree education in 2007. He added a master's degree in sports physical education from the Mississippi State University in 2008.

Peeler is married to the former Tori Hollis of Haughton, La., and they are the parents of Grayson, and twins Hollis and Hallie.

JACOB YORO

ASSISTANT COACH (S)

SECOND SEASON AT MIZZOU

HAWAI'I, 2008

Jacob Yoro joined the Tigers football program in February 2024, and serves as an assistant coach, working primarily with safeties. He spent his first season as a senior defensive analyst before being elevated to his current role in 2025.

Yoro boasts over two decades of coaching experience on the FBS, FCS, Division III, NAIA and high school levels.

In his first season in Columbia, Yoro assisted defensive coordinator Corey Batoon in taking Mizzou from 47th and 47th nationally the two previous seasons in passing yards allowed to 18th in the country. Additionally in 2024, the Tigers improved in third down conversion percentage defense (33rd and 47th to 5th) and scoring defense (55th and 25th to 20th).

Under Yoro's guidance, safeties Marvin Burks Jr. and Daylan Carnell finished third and fourth on the team in tackles with 66 and 51 stops, respectively. Carnell led the team in pass breakups (seven), while finishing second in caused fumbles (two) and fifth in tackles for loss (5.0). Burks Jr. posted 10 games with three-plus tackles and three contests with 10 stops, including a season-high 12 against Vanderbilt.

Yoro came to Mizzou after a seven-year stint at his alma mater Hawai'i, serving most recently as the Rainbow Warriors defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2023. He also spent time on staff as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach (2022), the linebackers coach (2021), the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach (2020), the outside linebackers and nickelbacks coach (2018-19) and safeties coach (2017).

During his time in Honolulu, Yoro helped Hawai'i to a program-record four consecutive bowl appearances (2018, 2019 & 2021 Hawai'i and 2020 New Mexico) and a 2019 Mountain West Championship game showing. Under his guidance, the Rainbow Warriors defense led the Mountain West with 17 takeaways in 2020 and tied the school record with five defensive touchdowns in 2021.

Yoro mentored two-time All-Mountain West edge rusher Kaimana Padello (2018 & 2019) and two-time First Team All-Mountain West linebacker and Polynesian Hall of Fame Player of the Year finalist Darius Muasau (2020 & 2021). Padello tallied 61 tackles, 20.5 tackles for loss, and 11.5 sacks over the 2018-19 seasons, while Muasau recorded 213 tackles, 24.0 tackles for loss, and 11.5 sacks across the next two years. Muasau was later selected in the sixth round (183rd overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

Prior to his time at Hawai'i, Yoro served two seasons (2015-16) as the defensive backs coach at Cal Poly, where he helped guide the Mustangs to a spot in the 2016 NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs.

Yoro also spent time at Pacific University in Oregon as its assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach (2014). He also served four years (2010-13) as the Boxers' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In 2013, his defense ranked fifth among NCAA Division III teams in sacks (35.0) and 28th in tackles for loss (75.0) and limited opponents to just 19.6 points per game.

Yoro got his start at the collegiate level at Montana Western in 2009, serving as the linebackers coach, after spending one season (2008) as the linebackers coach at Waipahu High School in Waipahu, Hawai'i.

Early in his coaching career from 2003-07, Yoro led his alma mater Saint Louis School in Honolulu to multiple league titles and three high school state championship appearances as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He earned his coaching start at Mililani High School in Mililani, Hawai'i as the Trojan's linebackers coach.

Yoro lettered two years (1998-99) as a linebacker at Montana before an injury ended his career. During his time with the Grizzlies, he helped them advance to consecutive FCS playoffs. As a senior, he compiled 20 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, and two pass breakups.

A native of Mililani, Hawai'i, Yoro earned his bachelor's degree in history from Hawai'i in 2008.

Yoro is married to the former Meredith Brynteson of Anacortes, Wash., and they are the parents of daughter Brynn.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES (Bowl Record: 17-20)

Southern California 20, Mizzou 7

Los Angeles Christmas Festival • December 25, 1924 • Los Angeles, Calif.

Head coach Gwinn Henry took his 7-1 Tigers to Los Angeles, California, for a Christmas Festival matchup with Southern California. The game was put together in a hurry because the Rose Bowl had chosen Stanford, led by Ernie Nevers, to take on Knute Rockne's Four Horsemen of Notre Dame. Since USC had tied Stanford for the Pacific Coast Conference championship, Los Angeles staged the Christmas Day game to honor the Trojans and invited Mizzou to be the opponent. The Tigers were champions of the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference, and they had opened the season with a 3-0 victory over the Big 10 champs from the University of Chicago.

Thinking their season was over, Henry's Tigers hadn't practiced in two weeks, and after accepting the invitation, set out for California on a week-long train trip. Alumni groups met the team along the way, and once in LA, the Tigers activities included a trip to San Pedro and the USS Maryland, a boat ride to Catalina, a train excursion to San Francisco, and a tour of the MGM studios, where they met silent-screen stars like Rudolph Valentino, William S. Hart, Blanche Sweet and Lon Chaney. They practiced only once and also visited the Grand Canyon.

The game was scoreless at the half, but USC scored on three long gainers after intermission to take a 20-0 lead. With 30 seconds to play, Mizzou's Johnny Walsh, an end, returned a Trojan fumble for a touchdown and kicked the extra point on the game's final play. Don Faurot was a fullback on that Mizzou team as was MU's first All-American, tackle Ed Lindenmeyer.

[16] Georgia Tech 21, [6] Mizzou 7

Orange Bowl • January 1, 1940 • Miami, Fla.

No. 6 Mizzou headed into the 8th Annual Orange Bowl well aware No. 16 Georgia Tech and quarterback Johnny Bosch would use ball-faking and offensive deception to the win the game. But Bosch still fooled the Tigers defense and over 30,000 fans with his play-action fakes.

After Mizzou's star, quarterback "Pitchin" Paul Christman, plunged across the end zone from the one-yard line to give the Tigers an early 7-0 lead, it was all Tech. Bosch's offense used trickery to its full advantage in a 21-7 victory, ending Mizzou's first Big Six championship season in defeat.

Georgia Tech's Howard Ector scored on a one-yard run to answer Christman and tie the game. Bob Ison then gave the Engineers their first lead, 14-7, on a 59-yard end around in the second quarter. The final score of the game came on another trick play, a 34-yard double reverse in the third period. Those two plays accounted for more than one-third of Georgia Tech's 210-yard rushing total.

The Tigers had their chances -- in the second quarter with the score still tied, Mizzou faced a 4th-and-15 at the Georgia Tech 37. Rather than punt, head coach Don Faurot chose to go for it. A pass failed and Tech marched down the field in three plays for the go-ahead score. Down 21-7, the Tigers mounted a final scoring effort, driving to the Tech 2 before Christman was stopped on 4th-and-goal. The Engineers took over on downs and ran out the clock.

[6] Fordham 2, [7] Mizzou 0

Sugar Bowl • January 1, 1942 • New Orleans, La.

The 1942 Sugar Bowl was played in a veritable monsoon, and the wet and muddy conditions turned the game into a defensive struggle. No. 7 Mizzou, spearheaded by a defensive unit which had allowed just 37 points in nine regular-season games, held No. 6 Fordham scoreless, the Rams' only points coming on a first quarter safety when end Alex Santilli blocked Don Greenwood's punt out of the end zone. But even that was too much for an uncharacteristically impotent Tiger offense to overcome. Hurt by four turnovers, Mizzou fell to Fordham, 2-0.

During the regular season, Mizzou had beaten five teams by shutout and outscored opponents by nearly 19 points a game. Harry Ice, Red Wade and Bob Steuber were the "Touchdown Trio" that anchored Mizzou's dangerous Split-T rushing attack that had led the nation in rushing yards per game. Fordham, though, held the Tigers' run game in check, giving up 148 yards and forcing two fumbles. The Rams also intercepted a pair of passes. Mizzou's defense was equal to the task, giving up just 137 total yards, including none through the air.

Neither team could cross the goal line, though the Tigers threatened time and again. Ice, who rushed for 112 yards, once broke into the open on his way to the end zone. But after gaining 34 yards, he slipped on the soggy turf and fell. Driving against the clock, the Tigers reached the Fordham 23-yard line, from where Steuber attempted a field goal in the final two minutes of play. The kick was accurate, but the heavy wet and muddy ball came up just short.

[10] Texas 40, [14] Mizzou 27

Cotton Bowl • January 1, 1946 • Dallas, Texas

The 1946 Cotton Bowl pitted two teams with totally opposite histories -- No. 10 Texas, who had never lost a bowl game, and No. 14 Mizzou, who had never won one. The result, though, was not the expected rout, but a record-breaking shoot out which Texas won, 40-27.

The game featured 980 yards of total offense (514 for Mizzou and 466 for Texas) and a Cotton Bowl-record 67 combined points. Mizzou rolled up a stunning 408 yards rushing and had two men over 100 yards. Quarterback Leonard Brown had 121 yards on 18 carries and halfback Robert Hopkins led the team with 125 yards and a touchdown on 16 attempts.

All that offense, though, was not enough to deter the Longhorns and their legendary quarterback, Bobby Layne. He had a hand in each of UT's six touchdowns. He ran for three scores, threw for two, and caught a 50-yard pass for another. He also made four-of-five PAT attempts.

While Texas was led by a one-man wrecking crew, Mizzou had four players score, each capping a drive of 62-or-more yards. But it wasn't enough to beat Layne and the Longhorns.

[11] Clemson 24, Mizzou 23

Gator Bowl • January 1, 1949 • Jacksonville, Fla.

Mizzou headed to the 4th Annual Gator Bowl expecting to get its first postseason victory over a Clemson team which had won just one bowl game in its history. Instead, what the Tigers got was a surprising 24-23 defeat and another empty-handed trip home.

The game was every bit as close as the scoreboard suggested. Each team had 298 yards of total offense and three touchdowns. It was Jack Miller's 32-yard field goal for No. 11 Clemson, offsetting a third quarter safety forced by Mizzou, which gave Clemson the margin of victory.

In a matchup where even the teams' mascots were the same, they also copied each other's manner of scoring. Both teams had two first-half touchdowns. Clemson's Fred Cone had two scoring runs in the first quarter and Mizzou's Bus Entsminger tied it with two touchdown scampers of his own in the second. Each team scored its final touchdown on a halfback option pass with MU's safety and Clemson's field goal sandwiched in between.

Despite all the build-up of Entsminger and Clemson tailback Bobby Gage, both of whom performed well, and the razzle-dazzle of two halfback passes, it was nothing but the ordinary which decided the outcome. Clemson's 32-yard kick from a difficult angle proved to be just enough for the victory.

[14] Maryland 20, [20] Mizzou 7

Gator Bowl • January 2, 1950 • Jacksonville, Fla.

At the 1949 Gator Bowl, No. 20 Mizzou faced an unfamiliar team at a familiar venue. Making its second consecutive postseason trip to Jacksonville, Florida, Mizzou met No. 14 Maryland on the gridiron for the first time.

Though the Tigers outgained the Terps by 25 total yards and had more first downs, the game was never close on the scoreboard. Maryland turned an interception and two Tiger fumbles into first-half touchdowns and had a 20-0 lead at the half.

In the first quarter, MU's Dick Braznell was intercepted, and Maryland's John Idzik returned the ball to the Mizzou 11. On the next play, Bob Shemonski gave the Terps the lead for good with a 11-yard TD run.

Tiger fortunes got no better in the second quarter when first Braznell and then John Glorioso fumbled, setting Maryland up in outstanding field position at the Tiger 2 and then the 15, respectively. Both turnovers became Maryland touchdowns on a 3-yard run by Dick Modzelewski and a 6-yard jaunt by Shemonski and the Terrapins were in control at halftime.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Tigers forced a Maryland fumble at the MU four. They then drove 96 yards, and Phil Klein scored the Tigers' lone touchdown on a five-yard run to avoid the shutout. But coming with less than two minutes to play, it was too little too late to stop a sixth straight bowl game from ending in defeat for Mizzou.

[5] Georgia 14, [18] Mizzou 0

Orange Bowl • January 1, 1960 • Miami, Fla.

Mizzou's 1959 squad gained the school's second Orange Bowl berth, the first in 20 years, by defeating Kansas, 13-9, on the season's final Saturday. The second-place Tigers went to Miami because Oklahoma had won the conference championship the year before as well and conference rules at the time forbade a team from playing in the same bowl two straight years. Unfortunately for Mizzou, the Orange Bowl trip ended just as the first one had – in defeat to a team from Georgia.

In 1940 it was Georgia Tech which sent the Tigers reeling. This time, Fran Tarkenton and No. 5 Georgia beat No. 18 Mizzou in Miami in shutout style, 14-0.

The Tigers went into the game with a pass defense that was seen as weak – not a good thing to have against Tarkenton, who went on to throw more touchdowns than any quarterback in NFL history at the time of his retirement in 1978. However, the game took on a familiar look as MU outgained is bowl opponent, both in the air, on the arm of quarterback Phil Snowden, and in total yards, but were still beaten.

Outside of two scoring passes from Tarkenton, a 29-yarder in the first quarter and a 33-yarder in the third, Georgia never posed a consistent offensive threat. Punter Bobby Walden kicked it away seven times. In fact, it was Walden's leg which kept the Bulldogs ahead, repeatedly pinning Mizzou in its own end.

Mizzou did, however, have numerous opportunities to dent the scoreboard. Three times Mizzou had first downs inside the Bulldog 25 and twice inside the 10 but could never converts those chances into points.

[5] Mizzou 21, [4] Navy 14

Orange Bowl • January 2, 1961 • Miami, Fla.

Mizzou's 1960 team was the first to be ranked No. 1 nationally. The Tigers began the season with nine straight victories, a string which included a win in Norman – Oklahoma's first home conference loss since 1942. Only a 23-7 loss to Kansas knocked them from that pedestal, however, Mizzou was later awarded a win when it was discovered the Jayhawks had used an ineligible player. The Tigers got their second straight Orange Bowl bid in the first year a team was allowed to play in the same bowl two consecutive years.

Mizzou's opponent was the United States Naval Academy, a team boasting Heisman Trophy winner, halfback Joe Bellino. The Tigers held him to four yards rushing, a key to their 21-14 victory.

With President John F. Kennedy in the stands, the game's opening quarter was so bizarre and exciting, it nearly made the rest of the game seem uneventful. The circus started with Mizzou on Navy's two-yard line, threatening to score. But on the next play, Navy's Greg Mather scooped up a fumble and returned it for a 98-yard touchdown, the longest play in Orange Bowl history, for a 6-0 Midshipmen lead. Not to be outdone, Mizzou's Norm Beal picked off a Hal Spooner pass at the Tiger 10 and brought it back 90 yards for a Mizzou touchdown and a 7-6 advantage.

After this riotous exchange of touchdowns, the game settled into a Mizzou domination at the line of scrimmage. The Tigers went on drives of 80 and 74 yards, piling up 296 yards rushing to Navy's minus-eight. Mel West led the way for the Tigers with 111 yards and Donnie Smith helped out with 93.

Despite Mizzou's ground domination, it was the pass defense which preserved the victory, grabbing four interceptions, including two by Andy Russell and one by Fred Brossart on the game's final play.

The triumph capped an undefeated season and Mizzou finished fourth in the United Press International and fifth in the Associated Press polls. In those days, final polls were released before bowl games, so in the AP poll, Mizzou was actually ranked behind Navy in the final poll.

Mizzou 14, Georgia Tech 10

Bluebonnet Bowl • December 22, 1962 • Houston, Texas

In the first rematch of a bowl game for the Tigers, Mizzou beat Georgia Tech, 14-10, in the 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl. The Tigers had lost 21-7 to Tech in the 1940 Orange Bowl.

The Tigers, 7-2-1 in the regular season with a victory over defending national champion Minnesota to their credit, used a dominant rushing game and defense to win their second-straight bowl contest. In fact, they didn't use the passing game at all. Mizzou had no yards passing, throwing just seven incompletions.

The Mizzou defense managed to withstand four turnovers – two interceptions and two fumbles by the MU offense – by forcing four of its own. For the second consecutive season, Mizzou picked off the opposing quarterback four times in a bowl game.

The big play in the victory was Bill Tobin's 77-yard scamper for a touchdown in the third quarter. The run turned out to be the game-winner as it put Mizzou up, 14-7. Georgia Tech added a third-quarter field goal of 27 yards but could muster no more.

[6] Mizzou 20, Florida 18

Sugar Bowl • January 1, 1966 • New Orleans, La.

The 1966 Sugar Bowl was a tale of two halves. No. 6 Mizzou led Florida at halftime, 17-0 and added a third-quarter field goal to take a 20-0 lead. But the Gators came roaring back and scored three fourth-quarter touchdowns thanks to talented quarterback Steve Spurrier. The game's MVP, Spurrier threw for two scores and ran for one to spearhead a comeback which was thwarted only when Mizzou's defense, eighth in the country in points allowed, stiffened and stopped all three Florida two-point conversion tries.

In its second Sugar Bowl appearance, Mizzou's ground game was dominant. The Tigers boasted the country's third-rated rushing attack at 247 yards per game and topped that with 257 while holding Florida to minus-2 on the ground. Because of Mizzou's defense against the run and the early deficit, Florida was forced to pass often. Spurrier put the ball in the air a record 47 times. He also set Sugar Bowl records with 27 completions, 16 coming in the wild fourth quarter, and 352 yards passing.

Halfback Charlie Brown and quarterback Gary Lane led Mizzou with 120 and 76 yards rushing, respectively. Brown also scored the first touchdown of the game on a 10-yard sweep early in the second quarter. Early Denny had the other Tiger touchdown on an 11-yard catch of a halfback option pass from Johnny Roland. Bill Bates kicked a pair of field goals for Mizzou as well.

The 8-2-1 Tigers at sixth place in the national polls finished just behind Big Eight champion Nebraska, which had beaten the Tigers 16-14 earlier in the year on a late field goal.

[16] Mizzou 35, [12] Alabama 10

Gator Bowl • December 28, 1968 • Jacksonville, Fla.

Mizzou's third trip to the Gator Bowl game was its first that ended in victory – and it came convincingly, 35-10 over No. 12 Alabama.

The No. 16 Tigers were on a two-game losing streak as they prepared for the Crimson Tide, national champs just two years before. The result was the most lopsided bowl victory in Mizzou's history and Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's worst defeat at Alabama.

Led by Greg Cook, who tallied 179 yards rushing and one touchdown, and Terry McMillan, with 76 yards and three scores, Mizzou gained 402 yards of total offense – all rushing. The offense put on its show while Alabama was held to less than 100 total yards. The Tiger defense sacked Tide quarterbacks 12 times. Alabama's only touchdown came on defense, a 38-yard interception return by Donnie Sutton.

Despite complete domination for three quarters, Mizzou led just 14-7 going into the fourth. The Tigers then turned it on. Following an interception by All-American Roger Wehrli, his second of the game, McMillan scored from two yards out and made the lead 21-10. On the Tigers' next possession, Cook rumbled 37 yards to put Mizzou up 28-10. Dennis Poppe then returned an interception 47 yards for the final margin.

Alabama came into the game seeking its ninth consecutive national top 10 finish. What it got instead was its first loss to a Big Eight team and only Bryant's fifth loss by more than seven points in his 140-game career.

Mizzou's performance, which boosted it to ninth in the Associated Press poll, inspired Bryant to say, "They ran up and down the field as though they were playing a barbers' college team."

[2] Penn State 10, [6] Mizzou 3

Orange Bowl • January 1, 1970 • Miami, Fla.

Mizzou's 1969 team was a record-setter in many ways. The Tigers, 9-1 Big Eight co-champions and ranked as high as fifth in the country, set team records for points and total yards gained in a season. Quarterback Terry McMillan and tailback Joe Moore set individual records for yards at their respective positions. It was therefore shocking the way the 1970 Orange Bowl took shape.

No. 2 Penn State, a team riding a 29-game winning streak, used its defense to dominate Mizzou's highly touted offense to win, 10-3. But it was Mizzou's defense which kept the Tigers in the game and gave them a chance to win.

Penn State scored its points in the first quarter – a field goal and then a 28-yard TD pass from Chuck Burkhart to Lydell Mitchell.

The Nittany Lion defense forced nine Tiger turnovers including a miserable five-interception performance by McMillan. Backup Chuck Roper was also picked off twice. Mizzou's defensive unit was nearly as good, though, allowing just 10 points and forcing Penn State to punt 12 times in the contest. Thanks to the defensive effort, Mizzou was at the Penn State 14-yard line in the last minute, still down just 7.

PSU Coach Joe Paterno said after the game the Tigers "had us backed up to where I was thinking about what kind of defense we'd use for a two-point conversion." But Penn State avoided that dilemma when safety Neil Smith intercepted McMillan for the final time.

Mizzou outgained Penn State 306-244 in total offense.

[15] Arizona State 49, Mizzou 35

Fiesta Bowl • December 23, 1972 • Tempe, Ariz.

Contrary to popular belief, there were defenses on the field in the 1972 Fiesta Bowl, but it didn't look like it based on the final stats. The 49-35 win by No. 15 Arizona State featured 1,129 yards of total offense (718 for ASU, 411 for Mizzou), 681 yards rushing (452 by ASU, 229 by MU), four touchdowns of more than 30 yards, including a 100-yard kickoff return by Mizzou's Mike Fink, and 84 points.

Sun Devil All-American Woody Green ran for 202 yards and four touchdowns including a 17-yarder and a 21-yarder in Arizona State's decisive 21-point fourth quarter. Fullback Brent McClanahan also topped 100 yards for Arizona State, totaling 171 yards on 26 carries.

Mizzou trailed 28-7 at half after two scores by Green, McClanahan's only touchdown, and a 34-yard scoring pass from Danny White to Ed Beverly on which it seemed Mizzou's Fink had made an end zone interception.

But the Tigers, as they had all year, clawed back after the break. Fink's return and two touchdown passes from John Cherry to Chuck Link sandwiched around another score by Green, made it 35-28 ASU early in the fourth quarter. Two more final-period touchdowns by the Devils, though, were too much for Mizzou to overcome.

The loss ended a Tiger season which had been up and down at 6-6 – never more punctuated than in October, when in successive weeks, the Tigers lost 62-0 at No. 6 Nebraska, then beat No. 8 Notre Dame, 30-26, in South Bend. During the campaign, Mizzou also owned victories over No. 7 Colorado and No. 12 Iowa State.

Mizzou 34, Auburn 17

Sun Bowl • December 29, 1973 • El Paso, Texas

Mizzou went to the 1973 Sun Bowl eager to erase the memory of three-straight losses to end the season which left them 7-4 after a quick start. A rushing total of 295 yards and two touchdown passes by quarterback Ray Smith ensured they would do just that.

Behind a 28-point second quarter, a Mizzou bowl record, the Tigers rose to 8-4 with relative ease and a ranking of 17th in the final Associated Press poll.

After falling behind 3-0 early in the second quarter, Mizzou scored three straight times and led the rest of the way. Fullback Ray Bybee, who ran for 172 yards, scored a second-quarter touchdown which was sandwiched between two touchdown grabs by tight end John Kelsey.

A 30-yard strike to Kelsey from halfback Chuck Link put the Tigers on top for good. Then came a pair of two-yard scores, one a run by Bybee and one a pass from Smith to Kelsey, before Auburn got on the board again. Following an Auburn touchdown, All-America defensive back John Moseley took the kickoff 84 yards for the fourth Tiger touchdown of the quarter and gave Mizzou a sizable 28-10 halftime lead.

The Tigers got only one score in the second half, a 15-yard pass from Smith to Jim Sharp. But it was plenty for the Tiger defense, which held Auburn to 233 total yards and forced five turnovers.

An offense that ranked last in total yardage and next to last in scoring in the Big Eight racked up 34 points and 390 yards.

[18] Mizzou 20, LSU 15

Liberty Bowl • December 23, 1978 • Memphis, Tenn.

The 1978 season, Warren Powers' first as Mizzou head coach, was one of incredible highs and devastating lows for the Tigers. The highs included a 3-0 win at Notre Dame against the defending national champions, the first time the Irish had been shut out since 1960, a lopsided victory over Kansas, and a bowl-clinching win over Nebraska, 35-31. The lows included a 35-20 loss to Oklahoma State, a 38-20 loss after having then No. 1 Alabama on the ropes and losing a 20-point lead in a homecoming loss to Colorado.

So, the Liberty Bowl was a rewarding end to the Tigers' season. Mizzou won 20-15 over LSU to advance to 8-4 against the nation's toughest schedule but it was again a game in which Mizzou was up and down.

The Tigers led 20-3 at halftime and were on the verge of a blowout victory. But Mizzou were a bit down in the second half, scoring no points, but moving the ball well enough and playing enough defense to win.

Sophomore James Wilder led the Tigers with 115 rushing yards and a second quarter touchdown. The Mizzou defense nabbed five turnovers (four interceptions and a fumble) to highlight a game in which Mizzou never trailed.

Mizzou's other touchdowns came on a 13-yard Earl Gant run in the first quarter, and a 16-yard pass from Phil Bradley to Kellen Winslow in the second.

Mizzou 24, South Carolina 14

Hall of Fame Classic • December 29, 1979 • Birmingham, Ala.

For the second-straight year, a strong running attack and an explosive second quarter led Mizzou to paydirt in a bowl game. This time, South Carolina were the victims, bowing 24-14 in the Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Alabama.

Even 133 yards from Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers were not enough for the Gamecocks to overcome Mizzou's 17 second-quarter points.

After falling behind early, 6-0, quarterback Phil Bradley engineered three scoring drives. The first ended in a 22-yard field goal by Ron Verrilli. The next two resulted in touchdowns by Bradley, the first a 28-yard scoring pass to David Newman and the second a one-yard plunge which gave the Tigers a 17-6 halftime edge. Mizzou used just a single second-half touchdown to maintain its advantage.

After South Carolina closed to 17-14 in the third quarter, Gerry Ellis ran 12 yards for the final tally. Ellis had 81 yards on 12 carries and James Wilder ran for 95 on 24 attempts to more than offset the output by the Heisman winner. Bradley efficiently led the offense, and the Tigers won their third consecutive bowl game.

Purdue 28, Mizzou 25

Liberty Bowl • December 27, 1980 • Memphis, Tenn.

An 8-3 Tigers squad earned its second Liberty Bowl berth in three years under head coach Warren Powers following a 31-6 shellacking of Kansas, which marked the third-straight win over the Jayhawks.

The Tigers started the 1980 season quickly at 6-1, but in the Liberty Bowl, it was a slow start which doomed the Tigers and allowed Purdue to walk away with a 28-25 victory. All-America quarterback Mark Hermann started anything but slowly in leading Purdue to a 21-12 halftime lead with touchdown passes of eight, 43 and five yards.

By the time Mizzou had its second first down, the Tigers trailed 14-0. Powers then called a reverse on the ensuing kickoff and Ron Fellows turned it into a 92-yard touchdown. The extra point was no good and the Tigers trailed, 14-6. James Wilder scored from a yard out, but when the two-point conversion missed, Mizzou lost its chance to draw even and trailed 14-12.

In the second half, Hermann threw his last touchdown, his second to Bart Burrell, and the Boilermakers were up 28-12. Trailing 28-15 with just under 13 minutes left, Mizzou had a chance to cut the deficit with 1st-and-goal at the six. Wilder, though, was stopped on fourth down at the one.

The Tigers managed a 10-point flurry which included a safety, and a Terry Hill one-yard touchdown run and were within 28-25 with 5:05 to play. But the next time Phil Bradley and the offense touched the ball, it was on their own six with 1:16 left and they could do nothing about it.

The Boilermakers sent the Tigers home at 8-4, spoiling Mizzou's chance at its first nine-win season in 11 years.

Mizzou 19, [18] Southern Mississippi 17

Tangerine Bowl • December 19, 1981 • Orlando, Fla.

The outcome of the 1981 Tangerine Bowl hinged largely on the leg of Tiger kicker Bob Lucchesi. A sophomore walk-on, he had struggled early in the season but was brilliant in the bowl game, hitting a Mizzou and Tangerine Bowl record-tying four field goals to propel Mizzou to a 19-17 win over Southern Mississippi.

For his efforts, Lucchesi earned the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player award. Lucchesi, though, was not Mizzou's only standout. All-America tackle Jeff Gaylord, the game's Most Valuable Player, led a stellar defensive effort. Mizzouri's defense held Southern Miss quarterback Reggie Collier, the first Division I quarterback to rush and pass for 1,000 yards in the same season, to 70 yards of total offense – 16 rushing and 54 passing.

Bobby Meyer, who led all players with 96 yards rushing, scored Mizzou's only touchdown with a three-yard run late in the first quarter. MU led 7-0 and never trailed. After the teams traded field goals, Lucchesi hit from 41 yards in the final seconds of the first half for a 13-3 Tiger advantage.

Two more Lucchesi field goals were just enough for Mizzou to withstand touchdowns by two of Southern Mississippi's future pro stars – running back Sammy Winder and wide receiver Louis Lipps.

Following Lipps' touchdown, a 74-yard reception from backup quarterback Davey Sellers, the Golden Eagles trailed just 19-17 with 1:03 to play. But the Tigers' Tony Davis recovered the ensuing onside kick, killing the Golden Eagle comeback.

[9] BYU 21, Mizzou 17

Holiday Bowl • December 23, 1983 • San Diego, Calif.

The 1983 Holiday Bowl was a clash of contrasting styles. Mizzou, led by sophomore fullback Eric Drain and walk-on quarterback Marlon Adler, boasted a tough running game and a feared defense. Brigham Young, on the other hand, had highly touted Steve Young at quarterback with 4,216 passing yards and a bag of tricks. In the end, it was the last trick out of the bag which produced a 21-17 BYU victory.

In a see-saw game which saw four lead changes, Mizzou held a 17-14 lead and the ball on 4th-and-1 at the Cougar seven-yard line with 3:57 left in the game. Drain, the offensive player of the game with 115 yards rushing and both Mizzou touchdowns, got the call but was stopped short. Still, the Cougars had 93 yards to go to win the game.

After defensive player of the game Bobby Bell sacked Young, his fourth sack of the game, on second down, Tigers hopes were high. They went down quickly on the next play when Young lofted a pass to Mike Eddo for 53 of BYU's 328 passing yards.

The most important yards, though, were yet to come. On a 4th-and-10 from the Mizzou 25, Young completed an 11-yard strike. Then came the razzle-dazzle.

After throwing for 314 yards, Young suddenly assumed a new role; he became a receiver. As he pitched to halfback Eddie Stinnett sweeping right, Young reversed field and drifted toward the left sideline. Stinnett floated a pass just inches over the outstretched arms of a leaping Bell and into Young's waiting arms for a 14-yard touchdown with 23 seconds left.

Despite Young's passing yardage, the Tigers contained the Cougar quarterback for most of the game. They sacked him five times and intercepted him three times. But in the end, it was Young's pass catching, not throwing, that did in the Tigers.

Mizzou had a chance earlier to pad its lead, but freshman tailback Jon Redd coughed up the ball twice, once at the Cougar three and once at the Tigers 32. BYU converted the second fumble into a touchdown.

[18] Colorado State 35, [19] Mizzou 24

Holiday Bowl • December 29, 1997 • San Diego, Calif.

The 20th Plymouth Holiday Bowl turned on three plays in the kicking game – a punt return, a fumbled punt and a fake field goal that enabled WAC champions Colorado State to win a 35-24 decision over Mizzou.

After All-WAC quarterback Moses Moreno marched CSU to a touchdown on the first possession of the game, the Tigers got in gear. A 65-yard drive to the Rams 15-yard line, highlighted by a 34-yard run by Corby Jones, led to a 32-yard field goal by Scott Knickman.

The Tigers took the lead in the second quarter, first converting a fumble recovery by Donnell Jones into a four-yard scoring run by Jones, then producing a 75-yard, all-on-the-ground drive that ended with a seven-yard touchdown run by Ernest Blackwell.

In between Moreno had a passing touchdown, but Mizzou held a 17-14 halftime lead.

The second half started ominously for Mizzou. Ricky Ross fumbled the opening kickoff, and the Tigers had to start at their own 10-yard line. Mizzou stalled near midfield and Vince Sebo punted to CSU's Darran Hall. He fielded the ball at the 15, avoided a tackle by Shad Criss – many thought Criss was clipped – then sped untouched 85 yards for a back-breaking touchdown.

Two minutes later, the Rams padded their lead on a 47-yard Moreno-to-Dallas Davis touchdown pass. Mizzou closed to within 28-24 on a three-yard scoring run by Brock Olivo.

The Tigers momentum to start the fourth quarter, but Ross fumbled a punt at his own 25-yard line. The Mizzou defense stiffened, and the Rams faced 4th-and-10 at the 23. CSU lined up for a field goal, but holder Ryan Eslinger picked up the snap and ran up the middle for a surprising touchdown that gave the Rams a 35-24 lead.

Mizzou managed one late drive in the final minutes, but Jones' final pass was intercepted at the CSU 11-yard line and the Rams ran out the clock.

The Tigers gained 314 yards on the ground, including 132 from Jones and 104 from Devin West, but the passing game lacked rhythm. Jones completed just 7-of-17 passes for 68 yards.

[24] Mizzou 34, West Virginia 31

Insight.com Bowl • December 26, 1998 • Tuscon, Ariz.

West Virginia couldn't keep up with the Joneses in the 1998 Insight.com Bowl.

Corby Jones rushed for three touchdown and Julian Jones intercepted a pass and blocked a punt for a safety as No. 23 Mizzou held on to beat the Mountaineers, 34-31.

Julian Jones, who also had 10 unassisted tackles and a 39-yard return of a free kick that set up a score, was named the game's most outstanding player.

West Virginia's Marc Bulger completed 34-of-50 passes, both Insight.com Bowl records, for a school-record 429 yards and four second-half touchdowns. His leading receiver, Sean Foreman, caught an Insight.com record 11 passes for 189 yards.

The Mountaineers had closed to within 34-31 with 2:11 to play and attempted an onside kick. But Mizzou's Dwayne Blakley recovered it, and the Tigers ran out the clock. It was WVU's eighth consecutive bowl loss.

Devin West, the nation' fifth-leading rusher, was largely held in check, but pounded the Mountaineers for 46 yards on 12 carries on a critical fourth-quarter drive that ate up 6:43 and led to a Brian Long field goal that gave Mizzou a 34-24 lead. West finished with 125 yards on 31 carries. WVU's Amos Zereoue, the nation's No. 6 rusher, managed just 32 yards on 22 attempts.

Special teams dominated much of the game. The Tigers' Jeff Marriott blocked a field goal in the first quarter that Carlos Posey returned 70 yards for a score. West Virginia's Boo Sensabaugh blocked a punt to set up a Mountaineers score, then Ricardo Rhodes returned a kickoff 60 yards to set up a Mizzou touchdown.

The victory was the Tigers' first in a bowl game since 1981.

Arkansas 27, Mizzou 14

Independence Bowl • December 31, 2003 • Shreveport, La.

Cedric Cobbs ran for 141 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown, to help Arkansas (9-4) end a three-game bowl losing streak with a 27-14 victory over Mizzou in the Independence Bowl.

Arkansas' defense made two key 4th-and-1 stops, one of them at the goal line, as the Razorbacks won for only the second time in their last 12 bowl games.

Chris Balseiro kicked four short field goals, an Independence Bowl record, and Arkansas' 300 rushing yards rushing were also an Independence record.

Special teams were a problem area for Mizzou (8-5), which lost 41 yards to its own three after a high snap went over punter Brock Harvey's head – essentially handing the Razorbacks a touchdown. Arkansas' Tom Crowder intercepted a fake field goal pass by holder and backup quarterback Sonny Riccio on the last play of the first half, and Crowder also blocked a punt in the fourth quarter.

Mizzou quarterback Brad Smith had 155 yards passing and 96 yards rushing to set the school career total yardage record in just his second season. He scored on a five-yard run late in the third quarter to cut the gap to 10 points. But he fell 23 yards short of becoming the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and run for 1,000 in two seasons.

Zack Abron added 137 yards on 19 carries for Mizzou, making its first bowl appearance in five years and only the school's third in 20 seasons.

The Tigers had a 407-385 edge in total yardage, but didn't have a lot to show for their 407 total yards.

Mizzou 38, South Carolina 31

Independence Bowl • December 30, 2005 • Shreveport, La.

As Brad Smith goes, so goes Mizzou. South Carolina knew that and the game plan of keeping Smith in check worked great – for a half, anyway. Then, the Mizzou quarterback broke loose, rushing for three touchdowns – including a one-yarder in the final minutes – and passing for another to rally the Tigers for a 38-31 victory over the Gamecocks in the Independence Bowl.

Smith, who rushed for 1,151 yards and passed for 2,022 on the season, accounted for 431 of Mizzou's 504 yards as the Tigers staged their biggest comeback victory of the year.

Mizzou trailed 21-0 after the first quarter as Steve Spurrier's Gamecocks dominated the first half. South Carolina out-gained Mizzou 312 yards to 174 in the first half and held the football almost 11 minutes longer (20:02-9:58) The Tigers didn't convert a third-down until the final 58 seconds of the half.

Smith completed 21-of-37 passes for 282 yards, with one touchdown and an interception. He passed for 200-plus yards for the 18th time. He also ran for 150 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

Marcus King gave Mizzou its first points, grabbing Blake Mitchell's pass at the goal line and returning it 99 yards to make it 21-7 in the second quarter.

After a Mike Davis two-yard touchdown run gave the Gamecocks a 28-7 lead, Mizzou staged its first long drive of the game. The Tigers went 77 yards and Smith hit Chase Coffman with a five-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14 at halftime. Coffman finished with eight catches for 99 yards.

Smith pulled Mizzou to 28-21 with a 31-yard run with 2:41 left in the third quarter. After an apparent Mizzou touchdown was nullified by a 15-yard tripping penalty, Smith finally got the score on a four-yard run that tied the game at 28 early in the fourth quarter.

Adam Crossett kicked a 50-yard field goal to put the Tigers up 31-28, but Josh Brown countered with a 30 yarder that tied it at 31-all.

Then, with 2:13 remaining, Smith sealed the Mizzou win with his one-yard touchdown run.

[24] Oregon State 39, Mizzou 38

Sun Bowl • December 29, 2006 • El Paso, Texas

Yvenson Bernard barely pushed into the end zone on a gutsy two-point conversion run after Joe Newton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass with 22.1 seconds left, and No. 24 Oregon State beat Mizzou, 39-38, in the Sun Bowl.

Oregon State coach Mike Riley was set to take his chances in overtime but then Mizzou called timeout to have Newton's touchdown catch reviewed, believing he may have bobbled the ball. During the break, Riley decided to go for the win.

The Beavers trailed by 14 points with 12:08 to go before rallying for their eighth victory in nine games. Bernard's seven-yard reception had cut the gap to seven with 6:02 to go.

Tony Temple had 194 yards, four short of the Sun Bowl record, on 20 carries with two touchdowns and Chase Daniel threw two touchdown passes for Mizzou. Temple missed setting a Sun Bowl record for rushing, 197 yards by Charles Alexander of LSU in 1977, after losing four yards on his final carry.

Matt Moore threw four touchdown passes and ran for a fifth for Oregon State, which helped produce the second-highest scoring game in the Sun Bowl's 73-year history.

Mizzou had seven plays of 29 yards or longer, including Danario Alexander's 74-yard touchdown catch and a 65-yard run by Temple. Mizzou responded after Newton's first touchdown catch on Oregon State's opening drive of the second half cut the Tigers' lead to 21-17.

Tommie Saunders' 29-yard touchdown catch from tight end Chase Coffman off a lateral gave the lead back to Mizzou and Temple's 65-yard untouched touchdown run seemingly put the Tigers in control at 31-21 with 5:58 in the third.

Among Mizzou's other big plays were a 40-yard catch by Coffman that led to Temple's seven-yard scoring run on the opening drive. A 47-yard run by Temple was followed by an 18-yard touchdown pass from Daniel to Coffman on the next play for a 38-24 lead with 12:08 left in the game.

[7] Mizzou 38, [25] Arkansas 7

Cotton Bowl • January 1, 2008 • Dallas, Texas

Colorful confetti flip-flopping around him, fans in black and gold chanting his name, Tony Temple and his Mizzou teammates were basking in a terrific ending to a magical season. Only one thing was wrong – the setting. See, this was the Cotton Bowl, not the national championship game they were a win away from reaching, and it wasn't the Orange, Fiesta or Sugar Bowl like they thought they deserved.

Motivated instead of deflated, the guys from the "Show-Me State" did their best to prove they belonged in the BCS by routing Darren McFadden and Arkansas, 38-7.

Mizzou (12-2) was ranked No. 1 after beating Kansas in the regular season finale, then lost badly to Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game – so badly that the Jayhawks wound up with an at-large berth into the Orange Bowl. Properly focused, the only thing left for the Tigers was figuring out that No. 25 Arkansas had loaded its defense with defensive backs to neutralize Mizzou's Heisman Trophy finalist quarterback, Chase Daniel.

Temple cracked the code pretty early, finding no linebackers after he broke the line of scrimmage in the first half. He had three carries of 22 yards, a 38-yarder and a 41-yarder as part of his 159 yards and two touchdowns by halftime.

Temple pulled a hamstring in the third quarter and missed several series, but said he was ready to return about the same time head coach Gary Pinkel heard that Temple was close to the record. He went back for just one play – a spinning, tackle-breaking 40-yard run into the end zone, then rode back to the bench on the arms of Daniel and a lineman.

Daniel was 12-of-29 for a season-low 136 yards with an interception. It was his second-straight game without a touchdown pass, but he didn't care because handing off to Temple was the way to go.

Temple's final run broke the Cotton Bowl rushing record of 265 yards, on 24 carries, set by Rice's Dicky Maegle in 1954, a performance that's best remembered for him being awarded a touchdown when Alabama's Tommy Lewis came off the bench and tackled him on a breakaway run. Maegle had three touchdowns in that game, as did Texas' Bobby Layne in 1946 and Syracuse's Jim Brown in 1957. Now put Temple's name above theirs in the record book. He had four.

The Razorbacks made a horrible first impression on incoming coach Bobby Petrino, from the defense allowing the most yards rushing by a single player to having five turnovers – an interception returned for a touchdown and four fumbles.

[25] Mizzou 30, [22] Northwestern 23 (OT)

Alamo Bowl • December 29, 2008 • San Antonio, Texas

Chase Daniel's last game at Mizzou ended with a fitting flourish. The star quarterback threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Maclin in overtime and the Tigers rallied to beat No. 22 Northwestern, 30-23, in the Alamo Bowl.

It was Daniel's first overtime game since leading Mizzou to a 27-24 win over Iowa State as a freshman when he took over mid-game following an injury to Brad Smith. Daniel had played sparingly at the end of a couple of games before that, but never when it counted.

After the 25th-ranked Tigers scored on the opening possession of overtime, their defense delivered, too. Mizzou sacked a backpedaling C.J. Bacher, forcing a fumble that left Northwestern with 4th-and-goal from the 32-yard line. Bacher's desperation heave into the end zone was knocked down, and Daniel rushed off the sideline with his teammates to celebrate.

The win gave Mizzou (10-4) double-digit victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Playing his final college game, Daniel overcame three interceptions to lead the Tigers back from a three-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

Jeff Wolfert made three field goals, including a 37-yarder with 2:49 remaining that tied it 23-all. But he missed a 44-yard attempt that could have won it for Mizzou as time expired. Daniel, who finished fourth in 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, matched a season high with his three interceptions. He was 27-of-44 for 200 yards and two touchdown passes.

The speedy Maclin, a first-team All-American as an all-purpose player, also returned a punt 75 yards for a score that tied it at 10 in the second quarter.

Bacher threw for 304 yards and equaled an Alamo Bowl record with three touchdown tosses. His 23-yard scoring pass to Ross Lane in the back of the end zone gave Northwestern a 23-20 lead at the end of the third.

After the Tigers tied it, Northwestern had a chance to drive for a go-ahead score, but Bacher's pass on 3rd-and-3 with less than two minutes remaining fell incomplete. Wildcats kicker Amado Villarreal missed an extra point in the third quarter that could have made the difference in regulation.

Navy 35, Mizzou 13

Texas Bowl • December 31, 2009 • Houston, Texas

Ricky Dobbs ran for 166 yards and three touchdowns and Navy downed Mizzou with its triple-option offense in a 35-13 win over the Tigers in the Texas Bowl.

Dobbs also threw a touchdown pass to Bobby Doyle and Marcus Curry ran for a score as the Midshipmen rushed for 385 yards against Mizzou's 12th-ranked run defense. Navy won time of possession by nearly 22 minutes and ran 81 offensive plays to only 57 for the Tigers.

Blaine Gabbert threw a 58-yard touchdown pass to Danario Alexander on Mizzou's second play from scrimmage, but the Tigers mustered only 298 yards the rest of the game - largely because they only had the ball for just over 19 minutes.

Gabbert also threw two interceptions and was sacked four times as Mizzou lost for the second time in its last five bowl appearances.

Alexander, who led the nation in receiving yards coming into the game, took a short pass from Gabbert and outran the Navy defense just 24 seconds into the game. It was Alexander's 14th touchdown catch of the season and eighth covering more than 50 yards.

The Tigers knew what to expect from Navy's offense and still couldn't stop it. Dobbs broke a 24-yard run on Navy's second possession, diving into the end zone with 2:58 left in the first quarter. It was Dobbs' 25th touchdown run of the year, adding to his NCAA single-season record for a quarterback.

Tigers' defensive end Aldon Smith sacked Dobbs on the first play of the second quarter, setting a Mizzou record with his 12th sack of the season.

Iowa 27, [14] Mizzou 24

Insight Bowl • December 28, 2010 • Tempe, Ariz.

Freshman Marcus Coker bulled his way through Mizzou's defense in place of suspended starter Adam Robinson and Micah Hyde scored the decisive touchdown on a meandering, 72-yard interception return in the fourth quarter, helping Iowa close out a difficult season with a 27-24 win over the Tigers in the Insight Bowl.

Undermanned due to injuries and suspensions, Iowa turned to Coker, a backup who had 403 yards and a touchdown during the regular season. The bruising freshman had no trouble taking over for Robinson, running over and occasionally around the Tigers to set school records with 219 yards and 33 carries while scoring two touchdowns.

Behind Coker, Iowa piled up 425 yards against one of the nation's stingiest defenses to overcome two rare turnovers by Ricky Stanzi and win three straight bowls for the first time.

Mizzou (10-3) had its way with Iowa's once-stout defense most of the night, rolling up 512 yards, including a school bowl record 434 passing by Blaine Gabbert.

Gabbert finished 41-of-57 passing to set two more school records, but inexplicably threw the ball right to Hyde, who dodged several tackles and seemingly every Mizzou player for the second-longest interception return in Insight Bowl history.

Mizzou had one final chance, but a fourth-down reception at Iowa's 33-yard line by T.J. Moe with 2:15 left was overruled on review and Coker helped grind out the clock. Moe finished with an Insight Bowl record 15 receptions for 152 yards for the Tigers in their second-straight bowl loss.

Gabbert was doing what he does best, picking apart Iowa's defense with short and intermediate throws. He was 23-of-31 passing for 284 yards in the first half, setting up a 23-yard field goal by Grant Ressel in the first quarter and Henry Josey's 10-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 in the second.

Mizzou 41, North Carolina 24

Independence Bowl • December 26, 2011 • Shreveport, La.

James Franklin's hard running and timely passing led Mizzou to an easy win in its final game as a member of the Big 12. It also gave the Tigers plenty of hope heading into their new home in the Southeastern Conference.

Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and the Tigers easily beat North Carolina, 41-24, in the Independence Bowl. Mizzou ended the season on a four-game winning streak for the first time since 1965.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less-than-ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points – an Independence Bowl record.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, but the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly gashing the Tar Heels for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina scored first, with quarterback Bryn Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

Mizzou responded with a 40-yard touchdown pass from receiver T.J. Moe to Wes Kemp after a lateral from Franklin. Moe hadn't thrown a touchdown pass since his days as a high school quarterback in suburban St. Louis, and it was just his second complete pass of the season.

The Tigers scored again on Franklin's 2-yard run to take a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The touchdown was set up by Franklin's 16-yard pass to L'Damian Washington that put the Tigers at the 2-yard line.

And Mizzou just kept piling on. The Tigers scored two touchdowns and a field goal during the second quarter to take a 31-10 halftime lead.

[8] Mizzou 41, [13] Oklahoma State 31

Cotton Bowl • January 3, 2014 • Dallas, Texas

Mizzou got the big plays it needed at the end of the Cotton Bowl to beat an old rival.

Henry Josey ran for 92 yards and three touchdowns, the last a 16-yarder with 3:08 left, and Shane Ray returned a fumble 73 yards for a touchdown after that, and the No. 9 Tigers beat No. 13 Oklahoma State, 41-31, to win the 78th AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.

The former Big 12 and Big Eight rivals traded points on six consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter, until Oklahoma State quarterback Clint Chelf was sacked by Michael Sam and fumbled with a minute left. Ray picked up the ball and rumbled 73 yards down the sideline in front of the stunned Cowboys bench to score.

SEC East champion Mizzou (12-2) matched its school record for victories, giving the SEC its 10th win in the last 11 Cotton Bowls, all against the Big 12.

Josey's go-ahead touchdown came a play after James Franklin's 27-yard pass to Dorial Green-Beckham to convert 3rd-and-9.

Sam's sack of Chelf gave him 11 1/2 sacks for the season, the most in the SEC and matching a school record set by Aldon Smith in 2009.

[16] Mizzou 33, [25] Minnesota 17

Citrus Bowl • January 1, 2015 • Orlando, Fla.

Markus Golden earned MVP honors, and the tandem of Marcus Murphy and Russell Hansbrough helped the Tigers to an impressive 337 yards on the ground, as No. 16 Mizzou won its second-straight January bowl with a 33-17 win over No. 20 Minnesota in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl.

Murphy ran for 159 yards, Hansbrough added 114 and a touchdown and Mizzou (11-3) secured its third 11-win season in the last eight years, and fourth time ever.

Minnesota pulled within two with fewer than two minutes left in the third quarter, but the Tigers pulled away on Hansbrough's 78-yard touchdown run and Maty Mauk's 7-yard scoring pass to Bud Sasser. That grab gave the senior 1,003 yards on the season, to give Mizzou its first 1,000-yard receiver since T.J. Moe in 2010. In addition, Hansbrough finished the year with 1,084 on the ground.

The Tigers had fun with their play calling, as defensive tackle Harold Brantley converted a first down for the second time this year on a fake punt. In addition, Ian Simon recovered a perfectly placed onside kick from Andrew Baggett to open the second half. Baggett's 33-yard field goal gave Mizzou a 13-7 lead.

The Golden Gophers responded on the ensuing series with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Mitch Leidner to tight end Maxx Williams. But Mizzou quickly answered, needing just three plays after a muffed Minnesota punt for Mauk to give the Tigers a 19-14 lead on an 18-yard touchdown run.

It tightened to 19-17 by the start of in the fourth quarter before Hansbrough got free and rumbled for his score that put the Tigers' up by nine with 9:28 to play.

Texas 33, Mizzou 16

Texas Bowl • December 27, 2017 • Houston, Texas

Plagued by turnovers, mistakes and poor field position, Mizzou fell to the Texas Longhorns, 33-16, at the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl in Houston's NRG Stadium.

Mizzou outgained Texas, 390-280, but fumbled twice, one resulting in a scoop-and-score touchdown, allowed a safety and started 12-of-17 drives at or inside of its own 20-yard line.

The Tigers opened the second half by scoring a touchdown on a 79-yard pass from Drew Lock to Johnathan Johnson. Late in the third quarter they got a field goal from Tucker McCann to cut the Longhorn lead to one score at 21-16.

The Mizzou defense forced a Texas punt, but following an incompletion on first down, the ball was snapped over Lock's head and out of the back of the endzone for a safety, upping the Texas lead to 23-16. After the ensuing free kick, the Tigers appeared to get a big stop on third down, but a roughing the passer penalty extended the drive, and Texas scored a field goal three plays later to go up 26-16.

Mizzou got to midfield on its next drive but was forced to punt with 10:45 remaining. And with just 1:39 left in the game, Texas added a final touchdown on an 18-yard run by Armant Foreman.

Oklahoma State 38, [23] Mizzou 33

Liberty Bowl • December 31, 2018 • Memphis, Tenn.

Trailing 35-19, No. 23 Mizzou closed to within two points of the Oklahoma State Cowboys midway through the fourth quarter, but a blocked 42-yard field goal that would have given the Tigers the lead allowed OSU to move to a field goal of its own that salted away a 38-33 victory in the 60th AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Senior quarterback Drew Lock went 23-for-38 for 373 yards and three touchdowns, a new Mizzou bowl record, and upped his career passing total to 12,193, becoming the 35th FBS quarterback to reach 12,000 career yards.

Mizzou held a 16-14 lead late at halftime, but Oklahoma State opened the second half with a touchdown drive to take a 21-16 lead.

On the next possession, Lock tossed a screen pass to Jalen Knox who fumbled on a jarring tackle and OSU recovered deep in Mizzou territory. Three plays later, Chuba Hubbard found pay-dirt as the 'Pokes opened a 28-16 lead.

Mizzou got a 26-yard field goal from Tucker McCann to cut the lead to 28-19. But on the Cowboys' next drive, quarterback Taylor Cornelius found Tyron Johnson for a 32-yard gain on 3rd-and-13, then connected with him again for a 46-yard touchdown and a 35-19 lead.

Tiger safety Cam Hilton intercepted a pass deep in Mizzou territory and Lock found Memphis native Johnathon Johnson for 86 yards and a score on the very next play to cut the lead to 35-26. Hilton came up with another interception and Mizzou turned it into points with a 55-yard run on an option pitch by running back Larry Rountree III, who had 204 rushing yards for the game, cutting the lead to 35-33.

Mizzou then forced a stop and blew up an attempted fake punt deep in OSU territory. The Tigers failed to convert a first down after the fake punt and had to settle for a 42-yard field goal attempt. The Cowboys blocked the kick and went down the field to kick a field goal that gave the Pokes a 38-33 lead and the Tigers wouldn't threaten again.

Army West Point 24, Mizzou 22

Armed Forces Bowl • December 22, 2021 • Fort Worth, Texas

Cole Talley kicked a 41-yard field goal on the last play of the game to give Army West Point a 24-22 victory over Mizzou in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, at TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Talley's kick spoiled a valiant Mizzou drive that gave the Tigers a 22-21 lead with 1:11 to play. Brady Cook, in his first start as the Tiger quarterback, completed 7-of-9 passes for 72 yards to drive the Tigers 83 yards to a touchdown on a six-yard pass to Keke Chism. The ensuing two-point attempt failed, however, leaving Mizzou with just the one-point lead.

After Mizzou's score, the Black Knights' third quarterback of the night, Jabari Laws, moved Army 51 yards on seven plays, aided by a Tigers' facemask penalty, to put Talley in position for the game-winning kick.

Cook got the Tigers off to a fast start, capping Mizzou's opening drive with a 30-yard touchdown run for his first career score. He directed three other long first-half drives, but each sputtered in the red zone and led to field goals of 22, 25 and 39 yards by Mizzou All-America kicker Harrison Mevis. The Tigers led 16-7 at halftime.

Cook completed 27-of-34 passes for 238 yards and a touchdown and ran nine times for 53 yards and a score.

Army got the ball first in the second half and put together a long, time-consuming drive that resulted in a 10-yard touchdown run by Jakobi Buchanan, a teammate of Cook at Chaminade College Prep in St. Louis.

Early in the fourth quarter, Army took a 21-16 lead when backup quarterback Tyhier Tyler completed a 14-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass to Brandon Walters.

Mizzou's defense rose to the occasion with the game on the line, twice forcing three-and-outs that gave the Tiger offense a chance to rally. Mizzou held the nation's second-ranked rushing attack to 211 yards, well below its season average of 286.4. Lineman Isaiah McGuire had a career-high 12 tackles including two for loss, and linebacker Blaze Alldredge had a career-high equaling 14 tackles.

Mizzou outgained Army, 433-306, in total offense.

Wake Forest 27, Mizzou 17

Gasparilla Bowl • December 23, 2022 • Tampa, Fla.

Sam Hartman threw two second-half touchdown passes after Mizzou had taken a 17-14 lead to pace Wake Forest to a 27-17 victory in the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.

Completing 23-of-36 passes for 380 yards and three touchdowns, Hartman set the ACC record for career touchdown passes with 110. His first and last touchdown passes went to Taylor Morin, the clincher coming with just 2:33 remaining in the game.

The Tigers trailed 14-10 at halftime but forced Wake to punt on its first possession. Brady Cook then directed a 13-play, 83-yard drive that ended with Cody Schrader scoring on a four-yard run that gave the Tigers their first lead at 17-14.

Wake Forest responded with a quick four-play drive that led to a 48-yard catch-and-run touchdown to Jahmal Banks, before Matthew Dennis missed the extra point, leaving the Deacons with a 20-17 lead.

Mizzou had two possessions after that near midfield with an opportunity to regain the lead, but the Tigers failed to convert on fourth-down opportunities both times.

With about six minutes left, Hartman led the Deacons on a 75-yard drive and hit Morin for his second touchdown reception that produced the game's final points.

Cook finished the game 29-of-48 passing for 215 yards and rushed 14 times for 38 yards but was sacked four times for 33 yards in losses.

[9] Mizzou 14, [7] Ohio State 3

Cotton Bowl • December 29, 2023 • Dallas, Texas

No. 9 Mizzou (11-2) rode their defense for nearly three quarters until the offense could find its footing against No. 7 Ohio State (11-2). But then two long back-to-back touchdown drives propelled Mizzou to a 14-3 victory in the 88th Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and just the fourth 11-victory season in school history.

Trailing 3-0 with 4:25 remaining in the third quarter, the Tigers mounted an eight-play, 95-yard drive that ended with a seven-yard touchdown run by Cody Schrader on which he drug two OSU defenders into the end zone. The big play of the drive was a 49-yard play-action pass from Brady Cook to Marquis Johnson.

After forcing an OSU punt, the Tigers took over at their own nine-yard line, and marched 91 yards to another score. The drive started with a 30-yard pass to Theo Wease Jr. and followed with a heavy dose of Schrader runs and a key fourth-down run by Cook to get into the red zone. Then, Cook zipped a seven-yard touchdown pass to Luther Burden III and a 14-3 lead.

On Ohio State's next possession, Daylan Carnell sacked Buckeye quarterback Lincoln Kienholz and forced a fumble that was recovered by Joe Moore II and from there the Tigers ran out the clock.

Schrader carried 29 times for 128 yards and scored a touchdown for the 10th straight game. He lifted his season rushing total to a Mizzou-record 1,627 yards.

Named the game's offensive MVP, Cook completed 11-of-18 passes for 128 yards and a touchdown and ran 19 times for 66 yards.

Mizzou's defense held Ohio State to 203 total yards and rang up four quarterback sacks. Johnny Walker Jr. had 1.5 of those and was named the game's defensive MVP. JC Carlies and Triston Newson were the top tacklers with 11 and 10 respectively.

Ohio State's only points came on a 44-yard first-quarter field goal. Mizzou had just 112 total yards in the first half but finished with 331.

[23] Mizzou 27, Iowa 24

Music City Bowl • December 30, 2024 • Nashville, Tenn.

Mizzou's defense stiffened in the fourth quarter, highlighted by a 4th-and-1 stop of Iowa quarterback Brendan Sullivan by Corey Flagg Jr. and Daylan Carnell with 1:03 to play, and Blake Craig booted a pair of long field goals as the No. 23 Tigers came from behind to defeat Iowa, 27-24, in the TransPerfect Music City Bowl.

With a 10-3 record, the Tigers posted double-digit victories for the second-straight season for just the third time in school history and gave head coach Eliah Drinkwitz his 38th win at Mizzou – most by any Tigers coach in his first five seasons. Brady Cook, the first Mizzou quarterback to start four bowl games, won for the 27th time as a starter – second only to Chase Daniel at Mizzou.

Iowa held a 21-14 lead at halftime and extended that to 24-14 with a 38-yard field goal by Drew Stevens with 5:19 left in the third quarter.

But after that, Mizzou's defenders thwarted four straight Hawkeye possessions. In the second half, Iowa gained just 102 total yards, had five first downs and scored three points.

After Stevens' field goal, Cook started Mizzou's comeback, completing a 17-yard third-down pass to Daniel Blood, and 44- and 12-yard passes to Marquis Johnson to set up a Joshua Manning touchdown on a four-yard reverse to narrow the Iowa lead to 24-21.

After Toriano Pride Jr. intercepted a pass near midfield, the Tigers got a 51-yard field goal from Craig to tie the score at 24-24 with 10:10 to play.

Five minutes later, after an Iowa punt, Cook completed a 20-yard pass to Tavorus Jones and a 15-yarder to Johnson and Craig struck again – this time from 56 yards – to give Mizzou its first lead of the game, 27-24.

Iowa's last gasp came with 1:44 to play after a short punt by Luke Bauer. But Johnny Walker Jr. sacked Sullivan for a 13-yard loss on first down and three plays later, with the Hawkeyes needing less than a yard for a first down, Flagg Jr. dove over the line of scrimmage and forced Sullivan into Carnell's arms for the game-winning tackle.

Cook ended his career completing 18-of-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns, and he ran 14 times for 54 yards.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCES

[9] Oklahoma 38, [1] Mizzou 17

Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship Game • December 1, 2007
Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas • ABC

No. 9 Oklahoma rushed for three touchdowns, quarterback Sam Bradford threw for two more as the Sooners coolly captured its fifth Big 12 title since 2000 by upending the upstart and No. 1-ranked Mizzou, 38-17, in the conference championship game in the Alamodome.

The Sooners contained the Tigers' Heisman Trophy hopeful quarterback Chase Daniel and three times forced one of the nation's best offenses to settle for short field goals instead of touchdowns. It was the first time all season Mizzou was held under 30 points.

When given the chance, the Sooners pounded the Tigers with short-yardage rushing touchdowns. Chris Brown scored twice and Allen Patrick added another. Bradford's touchdown passes in the second half pulled the Sooners away from a 14-14 halftime tie and wrapped up a berth in the Fiesta Bowl for the second-straight year.

Daniel was 23-of-39 passing for 219 yards and no touchdowns. He ran for the Tigers' only touchdown in the second quarter.

One of his incompletions was a tipped pass that was intercepted by OU linebacker Curtis Lofton that set up Bradford's first touchdown pass and a 28-14 Sooners lead in the third quarter.

Bradford was 18-of-26 passing for 209 yards. Patrick and Brown combined to rush for 159 yards for the Sooners.

[4] Oklahoma 62, [19] Mizzou 21

Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship Game • December 6, 2008
Arrowhead Stadium • Kansas City, Mo. • ABC

Sam Bradford and No. 4 Oklahoma made an emphatic statement at Arrowhead Stadium thumping No. 19 Mizzou, 62-21, for the Big 12 title.

OU, the highest-scoring team in major college football history, propelled to a third-straight conference crown and became the first to reach 60 points in five consecutive games.

The victory sent the Sooners to the BCS championship game against No. 2 Florida, where the Gators prevailed, 24-14.

By halftime, Bradford had already put up Heisman-worthy numbers, with 240 yards and two touchdown passes, and the Sooners led 38-7. Along the way they zoomed past Hawaii's NCAA record 656 points set in 2006.

The Sooners kept trying to put up more points until the end. Chase Daniel and Mizzou (9-4) never really had a chance.

Bradford finished with a Big 12 championship game record 383 yards.

Daniel completed 27-of-43 passes for 255 yards, and tossed touchdown passes to Jeremy Maclin, Tommy Saunders and Chase Coffman. Mizzou was able to rush for only 60 yards, while Oklahoma boasted of two 100-yard runners – Chris Brown (122 yds.) and Mossis Madu (114), each of whom rushed for three touchdowns.

SEC Championship Game • December 7, 2013
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga. • CBS

Henry Josey and Dorial Green-Beckham had standout performances offensively, but they were not enough as No. 3 Auburn outlasted No. 5 Mizzou, 59-42, to win the SEC Championship inside the Georgia Dome.

On a day that his inspirational comeback story was profiled nationally on ESPN's College GameDay, Josey had his second-highest output of the season, rushing for 123 yards on nine carries. Green-Beckham caught a pair of touchdowns from James Franklin on the way to a career-high 144 yards on six catches.

Auburn's Tre Mason earned MVP honors with SEC Championship Game records of 304 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries, scoring on runs of 7, 3, 13 and 1 yards.

It was a back-and-forth game from the start, as the teams combined to score on half of the 18 drives in the first half. Mizzou's Andrew Baggett started things with a 42-yard field goal less than five minutes into the game. The lead changed hands on the next five touchdowns before Baggett's 36-yarder with 7:19 left in the first half brought Mizzou within 21-20. Green-Beckham's second touchdown reception from Franklin made it 28-27 at the half.

After a 52-yard Cody Parkey field goal, Marcus Murphy gave Mizzou its first lead (34-31) since early in the game on a wide-open 10-yard catch from Franklin, who finished 21-of-37 for 303 yards and three touchdowns.

Franklin ran for a five-yard touchdown on the final possession of the third quarter to draw Mizzou to within 45-42, but Mason scored twice for Auburn in the final stanza for the game's final points.

[1] Alabama 42, [14] Mizzou 13

SEC Championship Game • December 6, 2014
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga. • CBS

Jimmie Hunt's career-high 169 receiving yards weren't enough to overcome a diverse offensive attack, as No. 1 Alabama secured the 2014 SEC Championship with a 42-13 win over No. 16 Mizzou at the Georgia Dome.

Derrick Henry helped Alabama salt the game away with two fourth-quarter rushing touchdowns, on his way to a 141-yard afternoon on the ground.

The Tide took a 21-3 halftime lead, but the Tigers, competing in the SEC Championship for the second-straight year, owned the third quarter, averaging nearly eight yards per play. Maty Mauk, who found success heaving several passes down field to Hunt after being flushed from the pocket, finished the quarter 6-of-10 for 134 yards and a touchdown to Bud Sasser. Mizzou also got a 33-yard field goal from Andrew Baggett to pull within 21-13 after shutting out the Tide in the frame.

But Alabama responded in the fourth quarter with three long scoring drives – the first of 64 yards that led to a Blake Sims-to-Christion Jones touchdown pass, a 90-yarder that ended with a 26-yard Henry touchdown burst, and a 62-yarder that was capped by a one-yard Henry plunge.

DAYS TO REMEMBER, DAYS TO FORGET

[12] Mizzou 7, [5] Oklahoma 6

November 18, 1939 • 26,500
Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Undefeated in Big Six Conference play, No. 12 Mizzou hosted No. 5 Oklahoma with a share of the conference championship at stake on a wet Homecoming afternoon at Memorial Stadium. Athletic business manager Virgil Spurling estimated he could have sold 50,000 tickets for a game that drew an overflowing 26,500, then the largest number to see a football game in the state of Missouri.

What they saw was a tight-fisted, defensive duel in which Paul Christman found it difficult to handle the slick ball. He threw only 15 times, completed 7-of-39 passing yards, but ran nine times for 49 yards, punted well, and on defense flicked away a potential game-winning touchdown pass.

In the third quarter, the Tigers had the Sooners hemmed in at their own six-yard line. OU's John Martin had to punt from his own end zone. Mizzou had a punt-block scheme in which left tackle Mel Wetzel blocked out and left guard Bob Waldorf blocked in. That allowed linebacker Charley Moser to shoot the gap and he exploded into the kicker. The blocked punt went straight up. When the ball came down, Mizzou's Bob Orf leaped at just the right moment, grabbed the ball, and came down under a pile of muddy jerseys in the end zone for a touchdown. Ron King booted the extra point to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead. OU scored late, but kicker Dick Favor missed the extra point and Mizzou held on for the victory. The next week Mizzou beat Kansas 20-0 to wrap up the championship and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

Mizzou 20, [4] SMU 14

October 9, 1948 • 30,892
Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

One of the greatest games ever played at Memorial Stadium – before a record crowd of 30,892 – came in 1948 when fourth-ranked SMU – winners of 16-straight games and led by the high-powered backfield of eventual Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker, Kyle Rote, Gil Johnson and Dick McKissick – came to town in the season's third week. Walker was spectacular, setting up the game's first score with a pass interception, making a leaping catch on a long pass play to the three-yard line, and then diving in to put SMU up 7-0. Mizzou marched 70 yards with the second-half kickoff and quarterback Bus Entsminger tied the game on a short run off right tackle. SMU drove to the MU 10-yard line, but Win Carter recovered a McKissick fumble, and Entsminger got the Tigers out of the hole with a 59-yard run, although he was caught from behind in the open field by the ubiquitous Walker. Although the drive stalled at the three-yard line, Mizzou had seized the momentum.

The Tigers took a 20-7 lead in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns from Dick Braznell and John Glorioso. But Walker wasn't through. Late in the game he caught a short pass from Johnson at the MU 45-yard line and sped the rest of the way for a TD. He kicked the PAT, too, to make the final score, 20-14. Walker's performance was probably the greatest all-round performance ever seen in Columbia. Mizzou's players stayed on the field for 20 minutes after the game, talking to Walker and the other SMU players. Tiger fans remained in the stands, too, mesmerized by what they had just witnessed. The Tigers went on to an 8-2 record and the Gator Bowl, where they dropped a hard-fought 24-23 decision to Clemson. SMU finished 9-1-1 including a Cotton Bowl victory over Oregon.

Mizzou 15, Kansas 13

Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Head coach Don Faurot went out a winner in his final game as Mizzou's head football coach, but the two-point win over Kansas in Columbia came in the most unusual of fashions. KU led for much of the game and was up 13-7 until Mizzou backup quarterback Dave Doane ducked the pass rush and fired a fourth-down pass for a 14-yard touchdown to end Larry Plumb. Alas, however, the snap went awry which prevented placekicking sharpshooter Charley Rash from booting the winning conversion.

With little more than a minute to play, it looked like Mizzou would be left with a letdown tie. KU had the ball at its own 20-yard line when quarterback Wally Strauch was thrown for a 16-yard loss. But the Jayhawks still had the chance to run out the clock. Kansas head coach Chuck Mather misread the distance. He thought the ball was on the 9-yard line, not the 4. Daringly he called for a reverse, Strauch to Bobby Robinson, but Mizzou's Chuck Mehrer read the misdirection, barreled across the goal line and bearhugged Robinson to the ground for a game-ending safety. Final score: Missouri 15, Kansas 13. Faurot's close friend, Alex Estes, told him after the game: "Don, you win some; you lose some; and now and then, one washes up on the beach." Faurot's career record versus Kansas was 13-4-2.

Kansas 23, [1] Mizzou 7

Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

The 1960 Mizzou-Kansas game was played in Columbia, before a then-record crowd of 43,000. KU's superb play on defense would prove to be a key factor in the game. Taking a chance on the Tigers' passing game, the Jawhawks went with a nine-man front to stop the vaunted Tiger power sweep, and it worked to near perfection. MU did not make a first down until late in the third quarter. But MU also put up a stiff defense, especially on back-to-back KU scoring threats near the end of the first half. One Kansas possession started on the Mizzou 11 after a fumble recovery, but KU turned it over on downs after quarterback John Hadl was twice stopped at the three. When Mizzou was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt from their own goal line, KU returned the punt to the MU 38. Kansas was able to advance the ball down to the 12, but Mizzou sacked Hadl for a big loss, and the Jawhawks missed on the ensuing field goal attempt. The half ended with the rivals locked in a scoreless tie.

KU got onto the scoreboard with a 47-yard field goal early in the second half. After another Mizzou fumble deep in their own territory, Kansas took possession on the Tigers' 19. Kansas' first two plays were stopped for no gain, and it looked like Mizzou would once again keep the Jayhawks out of the end zone. But on 3rd-and-long, Hadl passed to halfback Bert Coan for the game's first touchdown. Then, near the end of the third quarter, Kansas mounted its only long, sustained touchdown drive, going 69 yards in 13 plays. Coan had the biggest play on the drive, a 26-yard run, and he capped it off with a two-yard touchdown plunge.

When Mizzou finally scored with 5:24 left in the fourth quarter, the score stood at 17-7, with both Kansas touchdowns having been scored by Coan. The game's final points came after the Jawhawks picked off a desperation Mizzou pass and then threw for a touchdown with 37 seconds left. Kansas missed the extra point, resulting in the final tally of 23-7. Kansas had defeated Mizzou, and had apparently won the conference championship.

It was found, though, that Coan was ineligible and the Big Eight Conference later ordered Kansas to forfeit its victories over Mizzou and Colorado and awarded the conference title to the Tigers. Mizzou went on to the Orange Bowl, where the Tigers defeated No. 4 Navy, 21-14.

[14] Mizzou 41, Kansas State 38

Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

In what Big Eight Commissioner Wayne Duke called "the most exciting game ever" more than 1,300 total yards were gained by both teams in a wild game Mizzou won, 41-38. A week before, the Tigers had been upset by Colorado while the Wildcats were thumping Oklahoma, 59-21, for their first win over the Sooners since 1934. Kansas State came to town as the Big Eight's only undefeated team while the Tigers were right behind with one loss.

KSU quarterback Lynn Dickey completed 25-of-49 passes for 404 yards as the Wildcats rolled up 636 total yards. The Tigers gained 664. Mizzou slotback Jon Staggers had a remarkable game. He caught a touchdown pass from Terry McMillan, threw a halfback option pass for another, ran back a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, and then set up the decisive score with a 40-yard punt return.

Mizzou led 28-12 late in the third quarter when Kansas State did the unthinkable – scored twice on the Tigers in seven seconds. Just after the climax of an 80-yard scoring drive, KSU kicker Max Arreguin bent over as if to tie his shoelace. As he did, Mizzou relaxed. Rushing up from an angle, Wildcat Bob Scott slanted an onside kick that was recovered by teammate Mike Kuhn at the MU 37. On the first play, Jim Dickey hit Charley Collins in the end zone to reduce Mizzou's lead to four points. A few minutes later, the 'Cats put together another 80-yard touchdown drive and took the lead, 31-28.

The Tigers went back in front, 34-31, on a one-yard touchdown plunge by fullback Ron McBride after a long McMillan-to-John Henley pass before Staggers went to work. The Tigers stopped the Wildcats on downs and forced a punt that Staggers returned 40 yards to the Kansas State five-yard line. On fourth down, McMillan rolled out and into the end zone for a touchdown that gave MU a 41-31 lead. Dickey threw another touchdown pass with 7:23 to play, but later coughed up a fumble that was recovered by the Tigers' co-captain Sam Adams and threw an interception in the final minute to Jerry Boyd that preserved the Mizzou victory.

[7] Mizzou 69, Kansas 21
Memorial Stadium • Lawrence, Kan.

Terry McMillan, Mizzou's multi-talented quarterback, broke a Big Eight passing record as the Tigers fired out to a 28-7 halftime lead on the road and went on to humiliate arch rival Kansas, 69-21, for a share of the Big Eight championship. A regional television audience and 50,500 point-dizzy fans in Kansas' Memorial Stadium, saw McMillan put on an aerial show that gave him the Big Eight's season record for touchdown passes and broke Paul Christman's Mizzou single-game mark in the same department. The cool Coral Gables, Florida, senior threw four scoring strikes, ran for two other touchdowns and riddled the Kansas secondary for 307 yards – the most all-time against a Kansas team. He hurled a 63-yard first-quarter bomb to Mel Gray, then 3:28 later, he found John Staggers in the end zone from the four-yard line for his 16th passing touchdown of the season – breaking the old record set by Iowa State's Rich Mann in 1951. Gray also caught a 26-yard scoring pass and ran 19 yards on an end-around for a score. Staggers caught another touchdown pass from six yards, and scored his third touchdown on an 18-yard sweep. Joe Moore rushed 23 times for 164 yards and a score, and the Mizzou defense sacked Kansas quarterback Phil Basler 11 times for 61 yards in losses, recovered three fumbles and blocked a punt. Famously, after the game, Kansas head coach Pepper Rodgers quipped, "I gave Dan the peace sign, and he gave half of it back to me." The win sent the Tigers to the Orange Bowl and a New Year's Day date with Penn State.

Mizzou 30, [8] Notre Dame 26
Notre Dame Stadium • South Bend, Ind.

In what must be considered the greatest turn-around victory in Mizzou football annals, head coach Al Onofrio's Tigers shocked previously unbeaten Notre Dame, 30-26, on a gray, drizzly October afternoon in South Bend. This was the first of a half-dozen improbable wins that Onofrio's grid troops would perpetrate on disbelieving foes (and friends) over the next five years. This one occurred in Notre Dame Stadium where Ara Parseghian's Irish teams had won 78 percent of their games. The Tigers limped into South Bend as 4-to-5 touchdown underdogs.

Just a week earlier, Nebraska had thrashed Mizzou, 62-0, in a humiliating defeat at Lincoln. Upset? And how! As Don Johnson, Mizzou's barreling fullback, put it: "It feels like we've just won a bowl game." Johnson, the Tigers' top rusher, scored twice on fourth down tries from the one against Notre Dame's massed defense. The Missourians, meantime, played impeccable football – no fumbles and no interceptions – while the eighth-ranked Irish yielded a pair of each.

Tiger defender Bob Pankey intercepted Notre Dame quarterback Tom Clements' first pass – and after three successful gambles on fourth-down plays, Mizzou scored on Leroy Moss' 16-yard end sweep. Greg Hill kicked the conversion and Ol' Mizzou never was headed. Hill's three field goals accounted for the Black and Gold's last nine points. Notre Dame fought gamely, and Mizzou's shocker was not guaranteed until Tigers Mike Fink picked off a Clements' pass with two minutes to play.

[12] Mizzou 13, [2] Nebraska 12
October 13, 1973 • 68,170
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

No. 2-ranked Nebraska, two years removed from a national title and winners of a 62-0 decision over Mzzou the previous year in Lincoln, were heavy favorites entering the game despite the fact the 12th-ranked Tigers were 4-0 (with wins over Ole Miss, Virginia, North Carolina and SMU).

With a record crowd of 68,170 on hand, the score stood 6-6 in the third quarter on the strength of two Greg Hill field goals and two by Nebraska's Rich Sanger. The Huskers could have taken the lead on another short field goal try but Mizzou noseguard Herris Butler charged through the line and blocked it with his facemask. Late in the game, All-America defensive back and return-man extraordinaire John Moseley intercepted a David Humm pass and returned it to midfield. The Tigers couldn't gain a first down, but Jim Goble's punt was fumbled by safety Randy Borg and All-America center Scott Anderson recovered for the Tigers at the four-yard line with 2:35 to play. Two plays later, fullback Tom Mulkey bullied into the end zone for the first touchdown Mizzou had scored against Nebraska in three seasons, and Hill's PAT gave the Tigers a 13-6 lead.

Humm quickly completed four straight passes, the last of which covered 22 yards to Rich Bahe for a touchdown with one minute remaining. Nebraska's number-two standing on the line, head coach Bob Devaney went for two points and the victory. Mizzou had other ideas. Defensive end Bob McRoberts' charged into the backfield and deflected Humm's pass that was intended for I-back Tony Davis circling under the defense. Cornerback Tony Gillick snagged the fluttering ball for an interception that guaranteed the smashing upset. The Tigers went on to beat Nebraska in Lincoln in 1974, 1976 and 1978, but then it would be until 2003 before Mizzou would beat the Huskers again.

September 8, 1975 • 63,000
Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Mizzou's unheralded Tigers, led by the power running of Tony Galbreth and an unrelenting defense, snapped second-ranked Alabama's 22-game regular-season winning streak with a stunning 20-7 upset before a crowd of 63,000 at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The nationally televised Monday-night game was the opener for both teams and marked Alabama's worst regular-season defeat in 50 games since Tennessee beat the Crimson Tide, 34-0, midway through the 1970 campaign. Mizzou, a three-touchdown underdog, scored on four of its first five possessions in rolling to a 20-0 half-time lead as a pro-Alabama crowd watched in growing disbelief.

Galbreath, a 225-pound senior tailback, rushed for 89 yards on 19 first-half carries, including a three-yard touchdown burst through a gaping hole that gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead with seven minutes gone in the game. Galbreath finished with 120 yards in 32 carries.

The Tide's notorious "wishbone" running attack was denied by a baffling Mizzou hero: Keith Morrissey, a former high school quarterback who was playing his first college varsity game after being moved from quarterback to offensive line and then to defensive tackle. He was only 227 pounds, but when Alabama resorted to passing in the second half, he had the agility to elude the Tide's near-300-pound blockers. In his first game playing defense, he sacked future NFL quarterback Richard Todd three times.

Ozzie Newsome scored for Alabama in the fourth quarter, but the game was out of reach. The Tide ended with 31 rushing yards on 34 carries.

Alabama didn't lose a game the rest of the season. It outscored its opponents 367-52. But that night, the rare visage of a defeated Bryant humbly told reporters, "They kicked the hell out of us. What more can I say?"

[6] Oklahoma 28, [18] Mizzou 27
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Defending national champions, Oklahoma, had no problem optioning their way to a 20-0 halftime lead on Faurot Field in Columbia. But then the Tigers erupted. Steve Pisarkiewicz hit Henry Marshall with a 50-yard pass early in the third quarter that set up a Tony Galbreath touchdown run. In the fourth quarter, Marshall caught a 47-yard pass and Curtis Brown, who gained 153 yards on the day, ran 23 yards for another score.

With 8:32 to play, Mizzou went up 21-20 on a three-yard run by Galbreath, stopped the Sooners again, and took over at the Sooners' 44-yard line. On third down, Brown took off on a draw play from the 40, but fumbled near the goal line. Tiger split end Randy Grossart, though, alertly pounced on the ball in the end zone to boost Mizzou's lead to 27-20. Kicker Tim Gibbons, however, missed the extra point. After the kickoff, Oklahoma faced 4th-and-1 at its own 29. Joe Washington took an option pitch from Steve Davis and sprinted 71 yards for a touchdown. Coach Barry Switzer opted to go for two, as they had done successfully at the end of the first half. Washington took another pitch from Davis and was hemmed in at the goal line by defensive end Bob McRoberts and cornerback Kenny Downing. Leaping near the pylon, it appeared he never crossed the line as he was going out of bounds. But he was ruled to have scored and the Sooners took a 28-27 lead.

There was still 4:15 to play, and Pisarkiewicz marched the Tigers again. But after reaching the Oklahoma 20, the Tigers were pushed back and Gibbons missed a 40-yard field goal. Mizzou got the ball once more, but on the game's final play, Gibbons was short on a 53-yard attempt. On the day, he missed four field goals and a PAT in Mizzou's upset bid. Oklahoma went on to win its second consecutive national championship.

September 25, 1976 • 87,936
Ohio Stadium • Columbus, Ohio

Of all the amazing upsets, Mizzou's win in Columbus had to be considered the least likely. Ohio State was ranked second in the country and had just beaten No. 7 Penn State in Happy Valley. Meanwhile, after drubbing a Top 10 USC team on the road, Mizzou had lost quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz and been pummeled, 31-6, by a mediocre Illinois team at home the preceding week. Mustachioed backup Pete Woods would see his first career start in front of the third-largest crowd in Ohio Stadium history, against a team that had won 25 straight homes games.

OSU, behind 103 rushing yards and three touchdowns from fullback Pete Johnson, had a comfortable 21-7 halftime lead.

But then the Mizzou defense stiffened. OSU would gather just 82 yards of offense in the second half (Johnson had just 19). After linebacker Chris Garlich intercepted a pass near midfield early in the third quarter, Mizzou's Curtis Brown scored from four yards out to cut the lead to 21-14. From there, it became a battle of punting units. Woody Hayes was as conservative as they come, and in assuming that eventually his players would execute well enough to win, he took few chances. On the other sideline, Al Onofrio was not interested in handing the game to Ohio State either. It was a staring contest – who would make the first mistake? – and Ohio State uncharacteristically blinked first.

When Tiger defensive end Blaine Henningsen sacked OSU quarterback Rod Gerald with about five minutes left in the game, Buckeyes were forced to punt. A previously boisterous crowd was starting to get anxious. Meanwhile, Mizzou settled down ... almost too much. Milking the clock and attempting just two passes, the Tigers moved down the field, benefitting from a timely Ohio State holding penalty and moving into Buckeye territory. On 3rd-and-6 from the OSU 40, Brown burst through the line for 31 yards, setting up some serious drama.

Forget Ohio State versus Mizzou – it became Pete Woods versus The Horseshoe. Woods repeatedly asked for help from the officials in quieting the crowd near the end zone, and they attempted to oblige. Of course, this just raised the volume (and Hayes' hackles) even more. On 3rd-and-goal with 16 seconds left, Woods took a quick, three-step drop and threw a lob to Leo Lewis near the left corner of the end zone. Lewis barely got a foot down and barely held on long enough for a touchdown that brought the Tigers within 21-20.

Without hesitation, Onofrio decided to go for the win. Under pressure while rolling right, Woods threw incomplete, but there was a flag on the play: defensive holding. On the second attempt, Woods evaded two tacklers and sneaked into the end zone. After getting dominated for most of the first half, Mizzou had straight-up stolen a one-point win in Columbus.

Greeted by 800 fans at the Columbia airport, Onofrio told reporters, "Looking back on all the football games Missouri has played, I'd say this has to be the greatest football game Missouri has ever played under the conditions." With a backup quarterback facing the toughest road environment in the country, it's hard to disagree.

Mizzou 3, [5] Notre Dame 0

September 9, 1978 • 59,075
Notre Dame Stadium • South Bend, Ind.

It was just like old times for Mizzou's upset kings. The only difference in this one was that it was the debut of new head coach Warren Powers. Yet Powers, in his first game at Washington State the previous season, produced a 19-10 upset over alma mater, Nebraska, so he, too, was used to it. But not Notre Dame, the defending national champions and coached by former Mizzou coach and legend, Dan Devine, and quarterbacked by Joe Montana. Jeff Brockhaus' 33-yard field goal with 12:50 remaining proved to be the deciding factor against the Fighting Irish, who were playing at home in South Bend, Indiana.

But an inspired Mizzou defense produced five turnovers and held Notre Dame three times inside the Tigers' 20 on fourth-down situations in the second half. Linebacker Chris Garlich was named Big Eight Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the contest and received national honors from Sports Illustrated and United Press International. Powers also was named National Coach of the Week by UPI.

Mizzou 10, [11] Oklahoma 0

Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

For the second-straight time, Oklahoma came to Columbia with high hopes, but left victims of a stubborn Mizzou defense. The Tigers thwarted OU's vaunted rushing game holding them to minus-seven yards rushing in the first half and 84 yards total for the game. The Tiger offense scored 10 points in the first half and that was enough in a 10-0 Mizzou victory. The blanking marked the first time since 1965 that Oklahoma had not scored in a Big Eight game; and that shutout, too, was administered by Mizzou. It was only the second shutout in the Barry Switzer era.

After George Shorthose returned the opening kickoff 36 yards, the Tigers got into position for a 31-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. Then, with 9:11 remaining in the first half, quarterback Marlon Adler scrambled and hit Andy Hill with a 20-yard touchdown pass on a 3rd-and-14 play. Burditt, Adler and Hill all came to Mizzou originally as walk-ons.

The Missouri defense – led by defensive tackle Robert Curry, defensive end Taft Sales and linebacker Tracey Mack, all of whom earned some kind of conference or national honor for their effort that day – continually stopped Oklahoma in the second half and never allowed the Sooners to penetrate farther than the Mizzou 29-yard line.

[12] Colorado 33, Mizzou 31 "The 'Fifth Down' Game"

October 6, 1990 • 46,586
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

One of college football's most historic games took place on Faurot Field on Oct. 6, 1990, when the eventual national champion Colorado Buffaloes pulled out a 33-31 victory, scoring the winning touchdown on what turned out to be a fifth down on the game's last play.

With Mizzou leading 31-27, Colorado embarked on a frantic march down the field in the final minute of play, Buffaloes quarterback Charles Johnson spiked the ball to stop the clock. After regrouping, Eric Bieniemy charged up the middle to the one-yard line and Colorado called its final time out. Eighteen seconds remained.

It was here that the officials failed to notify the chain crew to flip the down marker from 2nd to 3rd down. When play resumed, Bieniemy tried to go over the top but was thrust backward by Tom Reiner, Mike Ringgenberg and Maurice Benson. The clock reached eight seconds, and officials ordered it stopped momentarily to clear the pileup.

Then, on what was fourth down, Johnson spiked the ball again. With two seconds to play, Johnson squirted over right tackle Mark VanderPoel. Hit by Reiner and Ringgenberg, he rolled over and extended the ball into the endzone and the officials signalled touchdown.

Pandemonium reigned for more than 20 minutes as those in attendance tried to determine what just happened. But, with the time expired, there was no avenue to appeal. What had appeared to be a major upset victory for the Tigers went into the record books as a bitter pill to swallow.

Colorado went on to win the Big Eight Conference championship, and with a victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, claimed a share of the national championship.

Here's how the play-by-play read of the game's final five plays:

1st and goal – MU 3 yd line	Charles Johnson pass incomplete
2nd and goal – MU 3 yd line	Eric Bieniemy runs middle, gain of 2 (Reiner)
3rd and goal – MU 1 yd line	Bieniemy runs middle, no gain (Reiner, Benson)
4th and goal – MU 1 yd line	Johnson pass incomplete
5th and goal – MU 1 yd line	Johnson runs middle, TOUCHDOWN

[6] Nebraska 45, Mizzou 38 (OT) "The 'Flea Kicker' Game"

November 8, 1997 • 66,846
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Mizzou took a 38-31 lead on No. 1 Nebraska following a 15-yard pass from Corby Jones to Eddie Brooks late in the fourth quarter. Nebraska took over on its own 33-yard line with 62 seconds left. Scott Frost had rushed for 141 yards, but had been an ineffective passer for most of the game, being picked off twice and not throwing a single touchdown pass while Jones hit on three.

But he got the Husker started when he connected with Kenny Cheatham for 27 yards down the sideline. After two incompletions – one of which was nearly intercepted by Mizzou's Al Sterling – Frost kept the drive alive with a 3rd-and-10 completion. Nebraska maneuvered to the Missouri 12-yard line with seven seconds remaining. Frost's bullet pass over the middle to Shevin Wiggins ricocheted off his chest as Julian Jones wrestled him to the ground. The ball fluttered toward the ground just out of the reach of safety Harold Piersey. Wiggins' left leg flew skyward and he kicked the ball backwards over his head. Matt Davison dove for it, and with his kuckles scraping the turf, he scooped it up the referee signaled touchdown.

In overtime, Frost ran for a touchdown and Jones was sacked on Mizzou's final play. Despite the loss, Missouri moved into the rankings at No. 25, heading into the season-finale which was a MU 42-24 victory over Baylor.

Mizzou 41, [10] Nebraska 24

Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Brad Smith tied a school record with four touchdowns and Mizzou scored twice on trick plays as the Tigers ended a 24-game losing streak against No. 10 Nebraska with a 41-24 victory.

Nebraska committed five turnovers in losing to Mizzou for the first time since 1978, and for the first time at Faurot Field since 1973. Fans tore down both goal posts after the game.

Mizzou trailed 24-14 in the third quarter before outscoring Nebraska 27-0 in the fourth quarter. Nebraska entered the game with the nation's top-ranked defense and was coming off its first shutout in three seasons.

Mizzou ended a 45-game losing streak against Top 10 teams dating to a 14-3 victory over No. 9 Mississippi State on Oct. 3, 1981. The Tigers, who scored on a throwback pass to Smith and a fake field goal, also ended a 20-game losing streak against Top 25 teams.

Smith finished 13-of-27 passing for 180 yards and his first two interceptions of year, making up for those errors with 123 yards on 18 carries plus a 47-yard touchdown reception off a lateral to Darius Outlaw. Nebraska had been allowing only 219 yards per game, but gave up 452 yards to Missouri. In a nine-minute span of the fourth quarter, Missouri scored more points than the Huskers had allowed in a game all year.

A 39-yard run by Smith on the first play of the fourth quarter cut the gap to three at 24-21. The Tigers then took a 28-24 lead on a fake field goal when holder Sonny Riccio, the backup quarterback, hit Victor Sesay for a 15-yard touchdown pass with 11:21 left. Smith ran one yard on a naked bootleg to make it 34-24 with 5:53 left and an interception and 34-yard return by Zach Ville set up a nine-yard Smith run with 5:11 to go.

[3] Mizzou 36, [2] Kansas 28

Chase Daniel and his Mizzou teammates had almost no time at all to savor the biggest victory in school history. A team that wasn't even ranked until late September had just beaten No. 2 Kansas, 36-28, and ruined the Jayhawks' perfect season, to become Big 12 North champions and head to San Antonio for a date with No. 10 Oklahoma in the conference title game. The mindset, best the Sooners, and the Tigers are in the BCS national championship game, something that seemed unthinkable in September for a team that hadn't won even a conference title in 38 years.

Daniel was unstoppable all night long, outplaying Todd Reesing, his Kansas counterpart, in a showdown between Heisman Trophy contenders. Mizzou sprung to the top of the BCS standings and became No. 1 in the AP Top 25 for the first time since 1960, the last time the Tigers were that close to a national championship.

Reesing's five-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Henry with 2:03 to go drew the Jayhawks within six points and Mizzou's Tony Temple was stopped on third down to give the Jayhawks one last slim chance. Lorenzo Williams put the finishing touches on it for the Tigers, sacking Reesing in the end zone for a safety with 12 seconds left.

Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Thousands of yellow-clad fans stormed the field even before the end of the Sooners' final, desperate play, hauling one goal post and part of the other to a local tavern, after No. 18 Mizzou's 36-27 victory over No. 3 Oklahoma.

Jerrell Jackson spun free from a knot of tacklers on a 38-yard reception for the go-ahead score that sparked a 16-point fourth quarter over the error-prone Sooners and put a sellout crowd of 70,004 in a celebratory mood.

Oklahoma committed three costly turnovers, out of character considering they had only five giveaways the first six games. Two of the turnovers led to 10 points and the other squelched a drive deep in Mizzou territory. The Sooners also missed a chip-shot field goal.

An 86-yard touchdown return by Gahn McGaffie on the opening kickoff put the Tigers on their way to ending a seven-game losing streak in a lopsided series dating to 1998. They beat the Sooners for only the second time in the last 21 meetings.

Mizzou shifted to 7-0 for the first time since 1960 when the school ended 11-0 and finished No. 5 after beating Navy in the Orange Bowl. This game was especially satisfying, coming against a school that whipped them the last three meetings, including ending the Tigers' one-week stay at No. 1 with a 38-17 victory in the 2007 Big 12 championship game and hammering them again 62-21 in the 2008 conference title game.

[20] South Carolina 27, [5] Mizzou 24 - 2OT

October 26, 2013 • 67,124
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Connor Shaw came off the bench in the second half to lead a 17-point rally, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns, and Elliott Fry kicked the go-ahead field goal in the second overtime to help No. 20 South Carolina stun No. 5 Missouri, 27-24.

After Fry put the Gamecocks ahead from 40 yards out, Mizzou's Andrew Baggett missed a 24-yard attempt off the left goal post. The Tigers could have all but locked up the SEC East with a victory, but instead South Carolina moved to within one game of the Tigers for the division lead, with home games against Mississippi State and Florida still remaining. It also spoiled a perfect start to the season for the Tigers, who were riding victories over Murray State, Toledo, Indiana, Arkansas State, Vanderbilt, Georgia, and Florida to begin the year.

A sprain left knee kept Shaw from starting, but he entered the game in the third quarter and helped the Gamecocks score the final 17 points of regulation. He also threw a 15-yard touchdown pass on fourth down in the Gamecocks' first overtime to match the Tigers' Marcus Murphy's 1-yard scamper.

[5] Mizzou 28, [19] Texas A&M 21

November 30, 2013 • 67,124
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

The score that sealed No. 5 Mizzou's Southeastern Conference Eastern Division crown fittingly came on the legs of junior tailback Henry Josey, who sprinted 57 yards to the end zone to put away No. 21 Texas A&M, 28-21, at Faurot Field.

Senior quarterback James Franklin helped his class finish strong in front of their home crowd, as the signal caller passed for 233 yards (18-for-28) and two touchdowns with 80 rushing yards.

The win gave the Tigers the outright SEC Eastern Division crown, and a berth in the SEC Championship Game against No. 4 Auburn. It also was a significant milestone for head coach Gary Pinkel, as the Tiger leader guided his group to the 101st of his 13-year tenure in Columbia to match legendary head coach Don Faurot, who claimed 101 victories from 1935-42, 46-56.

The Tigers battled the Aggies, headed by 2012 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel, deep into the fourth quarter, with the visiting squad knotting the game up at 21-21 with 10:43 left the contest. The two teams then played keep-away, both punting twice. Mizzou took over at 4:47 in the fourth quarter and Josey did the rest to continue his remarkable comeback story, crossing the goal line with 3:34 left after his mad dash. Since returning from his catastrophic 2011 knee injury vs. Texas, Josey had accounted for 951 yards and 13 scores on the ground.

[17] Mizzou 21, Arkansas 13

Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Marcus Murphy scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 12-yard run with 4:38 remaining, and Markus Golden recovered a fumble to seal No. 17 Mizzou's, 21-14, victory against Arkansas to send the Tigers to the SEC championship game for the second-straight season.

Mizzou tied it at 14 early in the fourth quarter with a 98-yard drive capped by Jimmie Hunt's four-yard touchdown reception and a reverse pass by receiver Bud Sasser to Darius White for the two-point conversion.

Arkansas was driving for the tie when Kentrell Brothers stripped Alex Collins and Golden recovered with 2:13 to go at the Mizzou 35 to thwart Arkansas' bid to tie it. The Razorbacks had won two straight, both shutouts against ranked teams.

A sellout crowd of 71,168 stuck around for the fourth quarter surge by the Tigers. Fans mobbed the field after Maty Mauk's kneel down ended it while stadium personnel took down the goal posts to prevent fans from toting them off to a nearby tavern. Ray Charles' "Georgia on My Mind"- a nod to the site of the SEC Championship - played while the stadium slowly emptied.

Mizzou 30, [15] Kansas State 27

September 16, 2023 • 62,621
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

With the final seconds ticking off the clock, Mizzou kicker Harrison Mevis booted a Southeastern Conference-record 61-yard field goal over the crossbar and sent the Tigers to a field-storming, come-from-behind 30-27 victory over No. 15 Kansas State at Faurot Field.

The Tigers last beat a ranked non-league opponent on Sept. 21, 1990, a win over No. 21 Arizona State, while Mevis' kick was the second longest in Mizzou annals to Tom Whelihan's 62-yarder against Colorado in 1986

In a back-and-forth game that saw five lead changes, quarterback Brady Cook had the best game of his career to date, completing 23-of-35 passes for a career-high 356 yards and a pair of touchdown passes to Luther Burden III. Cook was hobbled by a knee injury late in the second quarter, but only missed two plays and played the rest of the game wearing a brace. He also rushed for a touchdown on a fourth-down play in the second quarter – the first rushing touchdown allowed by Kansas State that season.

The Mizzou defense gave Cook a chance to put Mevis in position for his game-winning kick. With 3:46 to play, K-State moved from its 39-yard line to midfield before a false start penalty moved the defending Big 12 Conference champion Wildcats back to the 45. On 3rd-and-15, Treshaun Ward caught a short pass from Will Howard but was swallowed up by Joseph Charleston who tackled him for a one-yard gain and forced a punt.

MU took over at its own 18. Cook completed five passes for 36 yards and Nate Peat ran for seven yards as the Tigers got into Kansas State territory. A delay of game penalty, though, moved the ball back to the KSU 44-yard line, before Mevis' heroics.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF HOMECOMING

Mizzou 3, Kansas 3

The First Homecoming Game • November 25, 1911
Rollins Field • Columbia, Mo.

"Homecoming" is a commonplace event at most colleges and high schools in America, but Tiger lore says the nationwide tradition began at Ol' Mizzou in 1911. Other schools make similar claims to being the originators, but Mizzou's unique story adds considerable credence to MU's place in history.

From 1891 to 1910, the Mizzou-Kansas game was played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, but in 1911 it was to be played on a college campus – in Columbia – for the first time. The Missouri Valley Conference had ruled all conference games had to be played at a campus site.

Chester L. Brewer, Mizzou's director of athletics and football coach at the time, wanted to make sure the game was a success in its first year in Columbia, and he wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game. He issued a plea to Mizzou alumni – and especially former Tiger football players – to "Come Home" for the game.

They did in droves, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field, which was located on campus where Stankowski Field is today.

With four minutes to play and MU trailing 3-0, Tigers captain Glen Shuck booted a game-tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie and was carried off the field by his teammates.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. Little did Brewer know that his idea would grow to become Mizzou's biggest annual tradition. The core elements of most Homecoming celebrations today – pep rallies, a parade, a bonfire and a football game – were all a part of Mizzou's 1911 event. In the days leading up to the Nov. 25, 1911 game, several "mass meetings of rooters" were held, according to the Columbia Daily Tribune. More than 2,000 people attended the Nov. 24 evening pep rally, where they listened to speeches predicting a victorious game and practiced old and new cheers. Fans joined a torchlight parade to start the evening ceremonies, which included a bonfire on the practice field.

Since then, other festivities have become part of the week-long celebration. Probably the most iconic are the campus decorations, or "House Dec," a family-friendly event that draws scores of people to Greektown on Friday night. Other activities include a student talent show, campus blood drive, community service projects and the Saturday morning downtown parade.

Mizzou has a 68-40-5 record in Homecoming games and comes into this year's game having won a program-record eight in a row, including last year's 21-17 decision over Auburn. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent – 27 times – with the Tigers leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

Mizzou will host Massachusetts for the 114th edition of Homecoming on Saturday, September 27, only the second time the Tigers have hosted Homecoming in the month of September (1974).
